On the Cover:

This year Clemson will honor its Centennial Team members on the cover of each program. This week we honor six Tiger greats who were outstanding linemen. Bob Sharpe was captain of Clemson's 1939 Cotton Bowl Championship team. Lou Cordileone was a first-round draft pick after an All-America 1959 season. Don Chuy was an All-ACC Tiger who played many years in the NFL. Harry Olszewski was a member of the ACC's Silver Anniversary team after a stellar career as an offensive guard. Bubba Brown is still Clemson's career leader in tackles and Levon Kirkland is one of a handful of Tigers who was a three-time All-ACC selection at linebacker.

Clemson Has 3 Straight Shutouts vs. Maryland

Clemson defeated Maryland 17-0 in College Park last year, its third straight shutout of the Terps. Clemson downed the Terps 13-0 in 1994 and 29-0 in 1993. Clemson has kept the Terps off the scoreboard for 12 straight quarters dating back to the fourth period of Maryland's 53-23 win over Clemson in 1992.

This is the first time since the 1959-62 era that Clemson has recorded three straight shutouts against an ACC team. Clemson shutout N.C. State in 1959 by a 23-0 score, by 20-0 in 1961 and 7-0 in 1962. The two teams did not play in 1960. That is the only other time Clemson has shutout an ACC team three straight years. Clemson has never shutout an ACC team four straight years.

You have to go back to the 1944-48 era to find the last time Clemson shutout a team four straight years. The Tigers shutout Presbyterian in 1944-45-46-47-48.

Overall, Clemson has recorded three straight shutouts against a team 22 times, involving 13 different teams. Here is an alphabetical listing:

Alabama:	1900-04-05
Camp Gordon:	1907-08-09-10

Grammar School Teammates Meet at Death Valley

The starting quarterbacks in the Clemson vs. Maryland game on November 2 have a long history, and friendship. Clemson's Nealon Greene and Maryland's Brian Cummings grew up in New Jersey and played on the same Pee Wee team as youngsters. With Cummings as the quarterback and Greene as the tailback it was quite a successful team, winning the state championship of New Jersey. They even traveled to play teams from other states.

This will be the second meeting of the two quarterbacks at the college level. Clemson won last year 17-0, but Greene was injured in the first half and played just 35 snaps. He was 3-7 for 28 yards before the injury. Cummings went the distance and was 15-35 for 135 yards.

Down the Stretch They Come

Clemson has been a good team down the stretch under Tommy West and the stretch drive for the 1996 season has started. Clemson has won two in a row after starting out 2-3. Last year Clemson got off to a 3-3 start, then won their last five regular season games. In West's first year the Tigers were 2-5 at the start, then won three of their last four games.

Clemson will play four games in November, starting with the contest on the second against Maryland. The Tigers are 5-1 under West in games played in November and the Tigers are 15-4 in November in the decade of the 1990s.

Actually, October 17 seems to be the magic change day for Clemson football. Maybe it has to do with the leaves changing or something. But, since 1988, Clemson is 38-10 in games played after October 17, a .792 winning percentage. Clemson is 32-20-1 in games played before October 17 since 1988, a .613 winning percentage.

White Sets Career High

Raymond White moved from defensive tackle to middle guard this year and he is adjusting very well to the change. In fact he is having his best year by far. The junior has 55 total tackles this season, third on the team and best among Clemson defensive linemen. He has averaged a tackle every 6.7 plays, also third best on the team.

White has been outstanding of late and is coming off his career high game, 12 tackles against Georgia Tech. He was a key reason Clemson held C.J. Williams to just 59 yards in 23 rushing attempts. Tech had just 148 yards rushing as a team.

It was the second game this year that White has had a double figure tackle effort. The native of Mississippi had 11 tackles in the victory over Wake Forest. He has had at least six tackles in each of the last six games and has averaged nine tackles a game over the last four contests.

White became the first middle guard to have double figures in tackles in a game since the 1993 North Carolina game when Carlos Curry had 10 tackles. White's 12 tackles against Georgia Tech were the most by a Clemson middle guard since 1991 when All-American Rob Bodine had 13 against Georgia Tech.

Tigers Contribute to Habitat for Humanity

Many Clemson football players spent the Thursday afternoon prior to the Georgia Tech game working on construction of a house as part of the Habitat for Humanity project. The house, which was being constructed on Bowman Field on the Clemson campus, has been completed and will be moved to a permanent site.

Among the players involved in the project were starting defensive tackle Raymond White, who was involved in the wiring of the house. White had done wiring as a summer job a couple of years back. Placekicker David Richardson, offensive tackle Corey Husley, lineman Jason Holloman and snapper Elmer Bench also donated their time to the project that will help the homeless. By the end of the afternoon the players showed evidence of their hardwork by the amount of saw dust and paint on their person.

Clemson 28, Georgia Tech 25

Clemson is coming off its top game of the season, a 28-25 victory over 22nd ranked Georgia Tech. The Yellow Jackets were coming off a victory over 12th ranked Virginia and had a 4-1 ledger entering the contest. It was Clemson's Homecoming Game and the Tigers responded with the victory and now have a 24-1-2 record on Homecoming since 1970.

Raymond Priester led a ground attack that gained 262 yards against a Georgia Tech defense that had not allowed more than 112 yards rushing in a game all season. Priester went over the 700-yard mark for the season with his 175 yards in 25 attempts and he moved all the way from ninth to fifth in Clemson history in rushing yardage.

Nealon Greene hit on 11-20 passes for 156 yards and a touchdown in registering his third straight victory over Georgia Tech. Tony Horne had five receptions for 82 yards, while Joe Woods and Kenya Crooks both extended their consecutive game reception streak to seven games. Emory Smith, Priester and Greene all had rushing touchdowns against a Tech team that had given up just three rushing touchdowns all year.

Anthony Simmons and Mond Wilson each had 18 tackles to lead the Clemson defense that held running back C.J. Williams to 2.6 yards per rush. Raymond White had 12 tackles from the starting middle guard position and Antwan Edwards had 10.

White, Priester and center Jamie Trimble all won ACC Player of the Week honors for their performance. Clemson scored the winning touchdown on a one-yard quarterback sneak by Greene with just 4:06 left. Clemson executed a 15-play, 77-yard drive for the winning score.

Bartley Establishes Career High

Sophomore outside linebacker Howard Bartley had a career high eight tackles against Georgia Tech in just 38 plays. It was the most productive game of Bartley's career. He has started four straight games and has increased his tackle total four straight games.

Bartley's performance against Georgia Tech was the culmination of quite a comeback. The native of Decatur, GA was ranked as the 10th best defensive back in the nation coming out of high school by some services. Now in his third year at Clemson, Bartley had never played in a game prior to this year. He red-shirted his freshman season (1994) then tore an ACL on March 5, 1995 in a spring practice. He was never healthy enough to play last season. He was moved from the secondary to outside linebacker last spring and had a great Spring Game, contributing seven tackles, two tackles for loss and an interception.

For the season, Bartley ranks eighth on the team in tackles with 28, 13 first hits and 15 assists. He has three tackles for loss in his seven contests.

Hoover OK After Concussion

Fred "Doc" Hoover extended his streak of consecutive games worked as the Tigers' head trainer to 417 games, but it was also the first time he finished the game in the hospital. Hoover, who is in his 38th year in his current position and has never missed a Clemson game, was viewing the Clemson vs. Georgia Tech game from the sidelines. On the game's second play, Kelton Dunnican swept the left side for a 21-yard gain that ended on the Clemson sideline. Dunnican and Tech tacklers crashed into Hoover and he was knocked unconscious.

Hoover was taken from the sideline via stretcher and was transported to the Oconee Memorial Hospital in Seneca. He spent the night there under observation, and was released Sunday. This was the first time Hoover has been injured during a game. He was expected to wear a yellow jersey (injured list) at practice on October 22nd.

After Hoover was examined and tested at the hospital, he returned to his room and viewed the second half of Clemson's thrilling victory over Georgia Tech. At one moment in the third period he told a nurse, "You know this is the first time I've ever watched Clemson play on television." The nurse, who did not know Hoover's position with the University, replied, "Gee, you're not much of a Clemson fan, are you."

Hoover, who will benefit from an open date, should be back on the sidelines for the Maryland game on November 2.

Rushing Margin, Turnovers the Key

Clemson was 5-0 last year when it won the turnover margin stat and has won each of the last 12 games in which it has forced more turnovers than it has had offensively. Clemson won the turnover margin stat against Furman, Wake Forest, Duke and Georgia Tech, and lost it against North Carolina and Missouri. Both Florida State and Clemson had three turnovers on October 5.

Since 1978, Clemson is 101-11-2 (.894) when it wins the turnover war, including a 63-4-2 record between 1979-89. Clemson had the fifth best record in college football in the 1980s and had the eighth best turnover margin for the decade so you can see the relationship between winning and turnover margin.

The same can be said for rushing yardage. Clemson has won each of the last 10 games in which it has out-rushed the opposition, including a 4-0 record this season. The team that has won the rushing battle has won the last 15 games that Clemson has played. The last time a team won the rushing war and lost the game was in Clemson's 22-3 loss to Virginia last year. Clemson outrushed Virginia 180-132, yet lost the contest.

100-Yard Rusher, 200-Yards Rushing

Clemson had both a 100-yard rusher and over 200 yards rushing as a team against Georgia Tech, a positive sign for the Tiger team over the years. Raymond Priester gained 175 yards rushing against Tech, his third 100-yard game this year and Clemson is 3-0 this year when he gains 100 yards or more. Since 1980, Clemson is 71-12-1 when it has a 100-yard running back. When it comes to a 200-yard game for the team, Clemson is 2-0 this year and 102-15-4 since 1980, including a 35-6-1 record in the decade of the 1990s.

Tiger Offense Has Yardage Balance

Clemson has averaged 325 yards per game this season and the yardage is nearly evenly distributed between rushing and passing. The Tigers are gaining 164.1 yards per game rushing and 161.1 yards per game passing so far this season. Heading into games of October 26, Clemson was the only team in the ACC to gain over 1,000 yards each in rushing and passing.

This is as balanced a team as Clemson has had in many years in terms of rushing and passing yardage. Clemson has not had over 160 yards per game in both areas in the same season since 1984 when the Tigers gained an average of 169 per game through the air and 211.5 per game on the ground. The yards per game passing figure would be the best by a Clemson team since 1984 and the fourth best in Clemson history. The Clemson record for passing yardage per game over the course of a season is 175.5 by the 1969 Clemson team.

Clemson's 325.3 yards per game in total offense includes contests against Florida State and North Carolina, the top two defenses in the nation statistically. Clemson averages 390 yards per game this year when not playing against a top two defense.

Clemson to Play Host to ACC Tournament

Clemson will play host to the women's ACC Soccer Championships next weekend. The tournament at Riggs Field will run from November 7-10. It is the first time Clemson has played host to the women's ACC soccer championship.

All eight schools that sponsor the sport will be in action starting with the four first-round games on November 7. The games on the seventh will be played at 1:00 PM, 3:00 PM, 6:00 PM and 8:00 PM. There will be two games on Friday, November 8, played at 4:30 PM and 7:00 PM, and the championship on November 10 is slated to start at 3:30 PM.

Tickets for the tournament are priced at $15 for the entire tournament. Individual session tickets are $5 for adults and $2 for college students and under.

The ACC women's soccer championship is one of the top women's tournaments in the country every year. Four of the top 15 teams in the country are from the ACC, including the Lady Tigers, who have been ranked in the top 15 all season. Tracy Leone's team finished in the top 20 in each of the first two years of the program and are on track for another NCAA Tournament bid this year.

Trimble was one of three Tigers to earn ACC Player of the Week honors against Georgia Tech.

DEXTER McCLEON

by Brett Berg

Paradox. Webster's Collegiate Dictionary defines paradox as, "an argument that apparently derives self-contradictory conclusions by valid deduction from acceptable premises." A paradox, more simply put, is something with contradictory qualities. This may be the one word that describes Clemson cornerback Dexter McCleon.

Off the field, he is shy, away from the spotlight. He does not want to be on the cover of the local paper. He does not want to see his name in lights. He does not want to be the story of the week like so many other football players around the country. He does not want to be Primetime. Dexter wants to stay away from the limelight.

On the field, it is a different story. The only time Dexter wants to be in Primetime, is on the field. Here, Dexter wants the ball, he wants the attention of the other team, he wants the opportunity to make big plays, both on defense and special teams. He looks for the ball, and wants to make the big play.

Dexter plays cornerback for the Tiger defensive unit and returns punts for the Tiger special teams. You may see him today against Maryland knock down a pass or grab an interception, he may even run back a Terrapin punt for your viewing pleasure.

Dexter was not always a defensive threat, however. He started out as an offensive powerhouse. Coming out of high school, McCleon was an all-state, all-county, and All-South quarterback. He was a prep All-American according to SuperPrep, Tom Lemming, and Max Emfinger. Max Emfinger ranked Dexter as the third-best running and passing quarterback in the nation. Tom Lemming ranked him as one of the top three option quarterbacks in the nation.

How did he get this recognition? His senior year he gained over 1,200 yards and 10 touchdowns passing, and 500 yards and 12 touchdowns running. McCleon didn't stop at football either. His offensive production moved from the football field in the fall, to the baseball field in the spring. A first-team all-state choice in baseball also, behind a .395 batting average with 11 home runs and 56 runs batted in, Dexter was selected as a 13th-round draft pick of the Minnesota Twins.

Clemson was able to draw him away from Major League Baseball, but it also had to contend with other universities, such as Colorado, Alabama, and Florida. Dexter went on official visits to all of these schools, but thankfully he chose Clemson.

Clemson was able to convince McCleon by offering both a nationally recognized football team and a nationally recognized baseball team. "Coming out of high school, Clemson looked like the best situation for me," says McCleon. "They were going to give me the opportunity to play football and baseball."

After a red-shirt season in 1992, running the Tiger scout team, Dexter split his time in the spring of 1993 between the Clemson baseball team and spring football practice. While with the baseball team, Dexter batted .299 and had 16 runs batted in, while starting 29 games at designated hitter for the Tiger baseball team that won the ACC Tournament and advanced to the Mideast Regional. During the ACC Tourney, McCleon started four games, hitting .267 with a double, triple, and an RBI. Dexter's speed also was apparent, as he stole six bases that year.

The 1993-94 year may have been his most exceptional as a two-sport player, as McCleon participated on two top-25 teams, the Tiger football team was 22nd in USA-Today and the baseball squad finished fourth in the final poll.

McCleon's name appeared on the Clemson football stat sheet in rushing, passing, tackles, punt returns, and interceptions, as he established himself as the most versatile player on the Tiger roster. There are so many statistics deserving of mention, we might need another 10 pages in this program.

McCleon began the 1993 season as the second-string cornerback, having no prior defensive experience, but learned the position quickly, moving into the starting cornerback position. Dexter was the only player on the team to record two interceptions in one game that year, pulling down two against Duke. He also had four punt returns for 69 yards against Duke, one of which was a 39-yarder that set up the Tigers' winning field goal. This performance gave him ACC Rookie-of-the-Week honors.

Then, on the Monday before the Virginia game, McCleon was moved back to quarterback due to injuries to all three Clemson quarterbacks. He came off of the bench versus the 18th ranked Cavaliers to lead the offense to over 470 yards and a 23-14 victory. McCleon ran for 127 yards, then the second-highest total in Clemson history for a quarterback, and one touchdown. He also passed for 102 yards and one touchdown, in leading the Tigers to victory. The touchdown pass was to Terry Smith, a 73-yarder, and it gave Smith the Clemson career reception yardage record.

The opportunity to play quarterback again against Virginia, after starting the year at defensive back, was McCleon's most memorable sporting moment. "With no experience, I came over, played a lot and helped us beat Virginia," says McCleon. "I felt that since I hadn't had the work that the other quarterbacks had, being able to come in and quarterback the team to victory in the last three games, that is one thing that stands out in my mind."

The showing against the Cavaliers led to another Rookie-of-the-Week award, making him the first rookie in history to win the award as an offensive and defensive player in the same season.

The Tigers, with McCleon leading the McCleon was Clemson's starting quarterback in the Tigers bowl victory over Kentucky in 1993.

way, then went on to win at South Carolina 16-13, and downed Kentucky in the Peach Bowl, 14-13. This made McCleon's record 3-0 at quarterback for the Tigers in 1993. He finished ranked fourth on the team in total offense, even though he only played three games on offense.

Baseball was another productive sport for Dexter in 1993-94, as he started 52 of the 61 games he played in that year. He batted .234 and drove in 22 runs for the ACC Champion Tigers.

The fall of 1994, as a red-shirt sophomore, had McCleon back in the defensive backfield. He recorded four interceptions that year, tying for the most interceptions on the team. McCleon had a season high eight tackles against Georgia, all of them solo, and led the team in pass deflections with eight.

He decided to concentrate exclusively on football in the spring of 1995 and was able to participate in spring practice full-time for the first time since coming to Clemson. The increased practice time helped McCleon earn a tie for top honors in the ACC in passes broken up in 1995, with 13.

McCleon started all 12 Clemson games in the secondary in 1995. He had probably his best game in 1995 against the number-one ranked Florida State Seminoles, with seven tackles and three passes broken up.

McCleon was a member of two ACC championship baseball teams in his first two years at Clemson.

Through the Georgia Tech game this year, McCleon has started all seven games for the Tigers, has been in for more plays (425) than any other defensive player, is tied for the team lead in passes broken up (4), and is tied for ninth on the team in tackles (25). The pass deflection total would be higher if he had more opportunities. Opposing offensive coordinators have stayed away from McCleon's side of the field. Dexter also leads the team in punt returns, leading the Tigers with seven returns for 86 yards, including a 51-yarder against Furman.

For the record books, McCleon led the team in passes broken up in both 1994 with 7 and 1995 with 13. He is currently tied for seventh on the Clemson career charts in passes broken up (26) and tied for 14th in career interceptions (9).

McCleon has taken to the defensive side of the ball, becoming a true defensive back. "I take great pride in not giving up a completion... period. I feel if my man doesn't catch a ball on me then I've done my job. It is just something I strive for, no matter what defense or what coverage we are in."

Coach Charlie Harbison, the defensive backs coach, is the one coach who has helped Dexter the most in learning football from the defensive side of the ball. "I appreciate a lot of the things he's done for me," says McCleon. "He brought in a new scheme that turned me into a much better football player and a much improved football player."

The athleticism of McCleon has been proved on the football field in his versatility and his ability to adapt, on the baseball field, and in Clemson strength training, being the fastest man on the team with a 4.37 40-yard time.

McCleon credits his mom, Beverly, and sister, Tamara, with always sticking behind him in everything he does. They come to every home game, which is an accomplishment considering Meridian, Mississippi is a few hundred miles away. "They back me in everything that I do," says McCleon. "They are an inspiration to me. I try to return home to see them any chance I get."

Another big inspiration to Dexter is running down 'the Hill.' "It is an experience like no other. The first time you get ready to experience it, it's almost a frightening feeling. You are surrounded by enthusiasm. It is just a great feeling, but it doesn't seem like it lasts long enough." As a team captain, McCleon has not had the chance to run down the Hill yet this year because he must represent Clemson at the coin toss, but hopes to in his last home game against South Carolina.

McCleon, a senior management major, who plans on receiving his degree this December, hopes the NFL is in his future. "Dexter McCleon has had an outstanding season for us," said Tommy West. "He has been a leader. He has shown his all-around skills as a football player at Clemson for the last four years."

No matter what McCleon will be doing next Fall, we are sure he will be in the limelight...reluctantly.

DR. DENO CURRIS

Midway through his first year as president of Clemson University, Constantine W. "Deno" Curris addressed a faculty meeting by saying that he truly felt like a freshman at times—"excited to be here, but sometimes not sure exactly where I am." But by year's end, Curris had earned the ultimate compliment when an alumnus said,

"When I talk to him about Clemson, I feel like I'm the newcomer."

Curris hit the ground running when he became Clemson's 13th president on May 22, 1995. Among his early accomplishments were fine-tuning the academic reorganization of 1994 by adding a fifth college, establishing benchmark institutions to give students, parents and the public a way to measure Clemson, and setting out to fill key appointments.

Other high priorities included acquainting himself with the history and culture of Clemson, advocating Clemson's legislative goals in Columbia, and meeting members of the "Clemson Family" throughout the state and nation.

He also assumed a national leadership role of his own, being named to the Kellogg Commission on the Future of State Universities and Land Grant Colleges, and becoming Chairman of the Board of Directors of the American Association of State Colleges and Universities.

Before coming to Clemson, Curris served as president of the University of Northern Iowa for 11 years and as president of Murray State University in Kentucky for 10 years before that. His presidencies at both universities were periods of growth and advancement, and he sees Clemson as another institution well-positioned to move ahead.

"Clemson has effected significant organizational and program changes to position the university and its students for the 21st century. Our task in the years ahead is to use this foundation and to build Clemson into a strong university with national stature and visibility," he said.

To help build Clemson's reputation and stature, Curris outlined three goals for the coming year.

First, in order to improve the educational program, Curris established a committee to define what makes the Clemson experience unique.

"I believe this definition is a necessary first step in building Clemson's reputation for the quality of our education programs and the capabilities of our graduates.

Second, he has established a goal of $50 million annually in competitively-awarded federal research funding—which would be roughly a 30 percent increase.

The third major goal is recruiting the university's future—the brightest young faculty, the most promising professional staff, the best undergraduate and graduate students.

Meeting challenging goals is a Curris trademark. At Murray State, he oversaw extensive campus renovations and improvements, including a student center which was later named for him. At UNI, he led the school in raising admissions standards and implementing a more rigorous comprehensive general education program. UNI gained national recognition in many programs during the period and was cited in 1993 as one of the best educational values among public universities by U.S. News & World Report.

Curris received a bachelor's degree, magna cum laude, in political science from the University of Kentucky, a master's in political science and public administration from the University of Illinois, and his doctorate in higher education from the University of Kentucky.

When his schedule permits, Curris enjoys gardening, fishing and reading. He is married to Jo Hern Curris, a tax attorney and author.

TOMMY WEST

Tommy West entered his second year at the helm of the Clemson program with success on his mind, and that is what he achieved. He guided the 1995 Tigers to an 8-4 record, its best ACC ranking in four years, and a selection to a January 1 Bowl game.

For the second straight year, the Tigers showed marked improvement as the season progressed and the young team won its last five games of the regular season, four by at least 17 points. The run of success at the end of the season had the Tigers in the top 25 of every poll. West's Tigers were picked fifth in the ACC preseason poll, but, thanks to the third best offense in Clemson history and a defense that ranked 10th in the nation in scoring, Clemson finished third in the ACC standings with a 6-2 record, its best league finish since the Tigers won the ACC title in 1991.

The 1995 campaign was one in which Clemson excelled in every area. The Tigers ranked fourth in the country in rushing, yet also led the ACC in yards per pass attempt. Defensively, Clemson rated in the top 20 in the nation in rushing defense, passing efficiency defense and turnover margin. In terms of special teams, Clemson was the only school in the nation to have an individual ranked in the top 25 in punting, placekicking, punt returns and kickoff returns.

In his first full season, West guided the Tigers to a 5-6 record, and it was a season that showed week-by-week improvement. The '94 club, which featured the youngest Clemson offensive unit in 50 years, finished with a number-one ranking in turnover margin, a landmark ranking in Clemson football history. The team lost just two fumbles, fewest in NCAA history over the course of a season. The Tigers were ranked as high as 21st in the USA Today poll, and finished the season with three wins in their last four outings, including a decisive conquest of #12 North Carolina in Chapel Hill.

West took over the head coaching position on November 29, 1993. Less than a month later he already had a bowl victory on his ledger, a 14-13 triumph over Kentucky in the Peach Bowl, Clemson's sixth bowl win in an eight year period. With his debut in the Peach Bowl, West became the sixth coach in NCAA history to make his debut with a program in a bowl game. However, he was just the second coach in history to make his debut in a bowl game without previously coaching his new team as an assistant coach earlier in the season.

West was a mainstay of a Clemson coaching staff that led the Tigers to a 69-20-4 record and six Associated Press Top 20 finishes between 1982-89. During West's first tour of duty with the Tigers as an outside linebacker coach, Clemson played in five bowl games (winning four) and claimed four ACC Championships, including three in a row from 1986-88.

Clemson had a 44-10-1 record against ACC competition during his era on the Tiger staff, an 81 percent winning mark. Additionally, five of those Clemson teams ranked in the top 15 in the nation in rushing defense and scoring defense, and three ranked in the top 12 in the nation in total defense.

Clemson's 1989 defense ranked fifth in the nation in total defense, rushing defense and scoring defense and West's outside linebackers had a lot to do with that success. His top four outside linebackers that year all played in the NFL in 1995.

Levon Kirkland (Pittsburgh Steelers), Wayne Simmons (Green Bay Packers) and John Johnson (Cincinnati Bengals) were starters in 1994 in the NFL, and Ashley Sheppard (Minnesota Vikings) was a top reserve. Simmons was a first-round draft pick, Kirkland and Johnson second-round selections and Sheppard was a fourth-round choice. In addition to the four players listed above, Andy Headen (New York Giants) and Terence Mack (St. Louis Cardinals) are former Tigers West helped guide to an NFL career.

West began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Tennessee (his alma mater) in 1977. He coached one year of high school football at White County High in Sparta, TN in 1978, then became an assistant at Mississippi in 1979. For the 1980 and 1981 seasons he served as an assistant coach at Appalachian State.

After his career at Clemson (1982-89), West became the running backs coach at Tennessee. During that 1990 season Tennessee won the Southeastern Conference and captured the Sugar Bowl with a win over Virginia. The Volunteers scored a school record 442 points that year and averaged over 410 yards a game in total offense, 205.7 rushing and 205.4 passing. He served as Co-Defensive Coordinator at South Carolina in 1991 and 1992.

In 1993 West took over a UT-Chattanooga team that had won just two games in 1992. He doubled that total in 1993 and guided the Mocs to one of the landmark wins in school history, a 33-31 win over #1 ranked Marshall. He concluded the regular season with a 45-42 victory over Furman. Ironically, his first regular season game as Clemson coach was a victory over Furman.

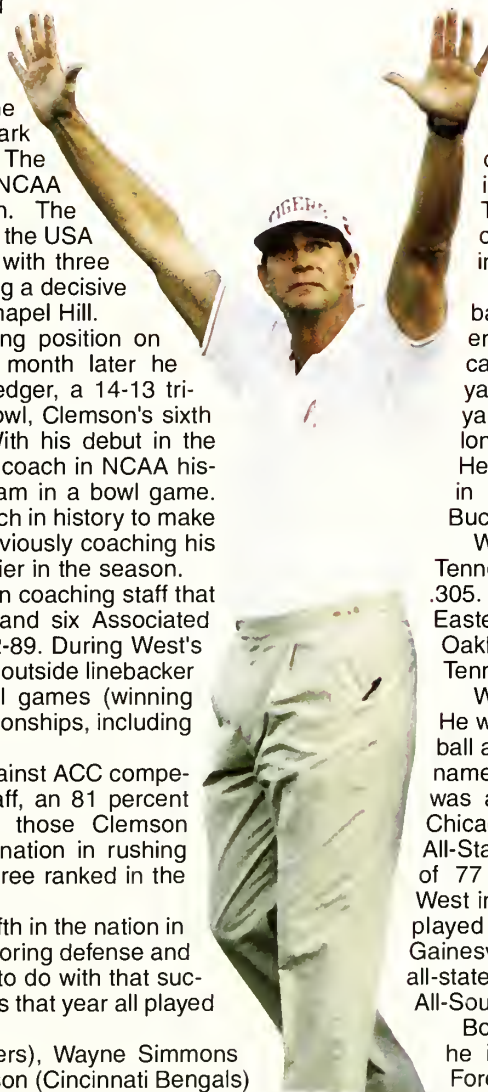

West earned three letters in his four-year career at Tennessee (1972-75). The Vols played in three bowl games and were ranked in a final Top 20 in three seasons. He was the co-captain of Tennessee's 1975 football team and played in the Blue-Gray All-Star game that same year.

He began his college career as a running back, but saw most of his playing time as a tight end. He caught 37 passes for 575 yards in his career with the Vols, including 16 passes for 233 yards as a senior. As a junior he caught an 81-yard pass from Condredge Holloway, still the longest non-scoring play in Tennessee history. He earned a bachelor's degree from Tennessee in 1976 and was drafted by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers that same year.

West played two years (1974-75) of baseball at Tennessee and had a career batting average of .305. He hit .367 in 1975 and was named All-SEC Eastern Division. Rick Honeycutt, now with the Oakland A's, was West's teammate on that 1975 Tennessee team that finished 32-16.

West was a multi-sport standout in high school. He was an outfielder in baseball, a guard in basketball and a running back in football. In 1972 he was named a High School All-American in football and was a third-round draft choice in baseball by the Chicago Cubs. Willie Randolph, who went on to an All-Star career with the New York Yankees, was one of 77 future Major League players drafted after West in the regular phase of the June 1972 draft. He played his prep football at Gainesville High in Gainesville, GA for Coach Bobby Gruhn. He was an all-state back as a junior and was also named to the All-Southern team.

Born Thomas Cleveland West on July 31, 1954, he is married to the former Lindsay Watkins of Forest City, NC. The couple has one son, Turner, 7.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Les Herrin

Les Herrin

Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Line

The Clemson football program has seen a lot of success during Les Herrin's tenure as an assistant coach. In 1981, Herrin arrived at Clemson as a linebacker coach, and the Tigers won the National Championship that season. In his first four years with the Tigers (1981-84) Clemson had a 37-6-2 record during that span. Herrin is the dean of Clemson coaches and is now in his 12th season in Tigertown.

After a brief stint away from Clemson at East Carolina (1985-87) and North Carolina (1988), Herrin returned to the Tiger program in 1989 as defensive line coach. In 1989 Clemson ranked fifth in the nation in scoring, rushing, and total defense. The team followed that performance with a number-one ranking in total defense in 1990, as well as second in scoring and rushing defense.

Herrin has coached several players who have had successful NFL careers. Herrin coached 1981 ACC MVP Jeff Davis, who went on to be captain of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and entered the Clemson Ring of Honor last year. He also tutored 1989 All-Pro Johnny Remy (New England Patriots), who was a linebacker under Herrin's watchful eye in 1981 and 1982. Chester McGlockton, a Pro Bowl defensive lineman with the Los Angeles Raiders the past two seasons, and Pittsburgh Steelers Super Bowl starter Brentson Buckner, also benefitted from Herrin's teaching.

Darrell Moody

Darrell Moody

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks

Darrell Moody is in his rookie season at Clemson, but he is no rookie when it comes to the ACC. The N.C. State grad arrived in Tigertown from North Carolina, ironically, his first opponent as a Clemson coach.

Moody handled the offensive chores for the Tar Heels between 1988-95, and he helped them to bowls in each of his last four seasons. His '95 offense joined Florida State's as the only ACC school to average over 240 yards passing and 150 yards rushing per game. He has also coached greats in Ted Brown and Billy Ray Vickers at N.C. State, Dalton Hilliard and Garry James at LSU, and Natone Means and Leon Johnson at North Carolina.

Moody has been coaching at the Division I level for the last 23 years and hopes to translate that experience into a successful offense at Clemson. He has coached in the biggest bowl games, including the Orange Bowl as an assistant at LSU in 1983. He has coached in 10 bowl games overall.

The 1970 N.C. State graduate was an outstanding athlete for the Wolfpack. He was a three-year letterman at N.C. State (1968-70) and led the team in passing in 1969. He was a member of N.C. State's 1968 ACC Championship football team and a starter on the Pack's 1968 College World Series baseball team, the only CWS team in N.C. State history.

At the conclusion of his athletic career he went into coaching and was an assistant coach under Lou Holtz at N.C. State by the time he was 25.

Ellis Johnson

Ellis Johnson

Defensive Coordinator/Outside Linebackers

Ellis Johnson is in his first season as the sole defensive coordinator of the Tigers, his second season as outside linebacker coach, but his third year on the Clemson staff. As defensive line coach and co-defensive coordinator last year, he was a significant reason Clemson ranked in the top 10 in the nation in scoring defense and the top 20 in rushing defense.

Johnson is in just his third year at Clemson, but is no stranger to the area. He attended The Citadel, but he grew up a Clemson fan. He has coached in the state at The Citadel as a graduate assistant, at Gaffney High as an assistant coach and at Spartanburg High as an assistant coach and head coach. His most successful stint in coaching so far took place in Alabama. The Crimson Tide experienced a perfect season and defeated Miami (FL) in the Sugar Bowl to win the National Championship in 1992. He is one of two Tiger assistant coaches on this year's staff with a National Championship ring. Les Herrin, a member of Clemson's 1981 staff, is the other.

Johnson was a part of four outstanding defenses at Alabama. During his tenure (1990-93), Alabama ranked in the top five in the nation in total defense and pass defense three times. The 1992 Alabama defense led the nation in total defense and rushing defense and ranked second nationally in passing defense and scoring defense. Johnson married the former Tonya Taylor in August of 1994.

Richard Bisaccia

Richard Bisaccia

Running Backs/Special Teams/Recruiting Coordinator

Richard Bisaccia enters the 1996 season after coaching the ACC leading rusher in Raymond Priester. He helped to develop Priester into the single-season ground gainer in Clemson history. He also has had a positive effect on fullback Emory Smith, who gained 712 yards last year and combined with Priester to set a Clemson single season rushing record for a starting backfield.

Bisaccia, a Yonkers, NY native, learned how to hold onto the football as a four-year starter and team captain at Yankton College. He has been successful in teaching that aspect of the game, as Clemson had just two lost fumbles in 1994, his first year, tying the all-time NCAA Division I record for fewest lost fumbles in a season. He was a free agent with the Philadelphia Stars of the USFL after his college career.

While the 1983 Spring season saw the end of his playing career, the 1983 fall was the beginning of his coaching career. He was named the offensive coordinator at Wayne State in Nebraska his first year out of college and he has been in college coaching ever since.

Unlike many Division I full-time assistant coaches, Bisaccia has not made a lot of moves. He spent five seasons at Wayne State, then six seasons at South Carolina. He has experience coaching on defense and offense, but will concentrate on the running backs position at Clemson.

Bisaccia probably wears more hats than any other Clemson coach. In addition to his time with the running backs, he is also the special teams coach and the recruiting coordinator.

In addition to Bisaccia's recent changes on the gridiron, he has had a family addition within the last two years. In August of '94 his wife Jeanne gave birth to their first son and fourth child, Richard Oakley.

The Richard Bisaccia File

At Clemson: In his third season as the Tigers' running backs coach and special teams coach.

Previous Coaching Experience: College - Offensive coordinator at Wayne State (NE) (1983-87); graduate assistant for wide receivers at South Carolina (1988); volunteer assistant for defensive ends at South Carolina (1989-90); tight ends coach at South Carolina (1991); running backs and special teams coach at South Carolina (1992-93); running backs and special teams coach at Clemson (Dec. 1993-present).

Education: New Fairfield High School in New Fairfield, CT; Earned a degree in health and physical education from Yankton College (1983).

College Playing Experience: Four-year starter and team captain at Yankton College (1980-83).

Personal Data: Born June 3, 1960...he and his wife Jeanne have four children: daughters, Michele (12), Elizabeth (7), and Madeline (3) and son Richard Oakley (2).

Charlie Harbison

Charlie Harbison

Defensive Backs

Second-year Clemson coach Charlie Harbison has more experience at the professional level than any other current Tiger mentor. Harbison was a starter at strong safety with the New Orleans and Boston Breakers of the USFL in 1983-84 and also signed a free agent contract with the Buffalo Bills in 1982, 1985 and 1986.

Harbison also coached on the pro level with the Raleigh-Durham Skyhawks of the World League of American Football, with the Charlotte Barons of the MLFS and with the Charlotte Rage of the AFL. He has coached wide receivers, linebackers, and defensive backs in his career, but has by far his most experience as a secondary coach.

He enters the '96 campaign after a successful season a year ago. His secondary, led by NFL draftees Brian Dawkins and Leomont Evans, ranked in the top 20 in the nation. The 22 interceptions was the eighth best total by a Clemson team (per game) in history and the best mark since the national championship season. In 1994 he coached the secondary at UTEP. This season, his second at Clemson, he will have the opportunity to enhance the careers of a veteran secondary led by Dexter McCleon, Andre Carter and the Ford twins, Peter and Andy.

In addition to his Division I experience, Harbison also has had significant success at the NAIA level. His Gardner Webb team of 1992 had a 12-2 record and played in the NAIA Championship game.

The Charlie Harbison File

At Clemson: In his second year as secondary coach and second at Clemson.

Personal Data: Born October 27, 1959. He has two sons, Charlie and Stedman.

Reggie Herring

Reggie Herring

Inside Linebackers

Reggie Herring is another example of an outstanding former player who has gone on to become an outstanding coach. A teammate of Rick Stockstill at Florida State, Herring left his own mark with the Seminole program as a player.

Herring was captain of the 1980 Orange Bowl team and earned AP All-America honors in 1980. The Seminoles played in the Orange Bowl and ranked in the top 10 in the nation his junior and senior seasons, and he was recently inducted into the Florida State Hall of Fame. He was a three-year starter at Florida State and the Seminoles played in three bowls during his four-year career. Florida State also had three double-figure victory seasons during his career.

Like many of Clemson's assistant coaches in 1996, Herring has a diverse experience history. He has been a part of successful programs at Oklahoma State, Auburn, TCU and now Clemson. He was defensive coordinator at TCU prior to coming to Clemson.

Herring has not made plans over the Christmas holidays for quite some time. He has been a part of college football as a player and coach since 1977. In those 19 seasons he has been to 14 bowl games, 11 as a coach and three as a player.

In his first year at Clemson he coached UPI National Freshman of the Year Anthony Simmons who was also a third-team AP All-American. Herring also coached first-team Academic All-American Andy McCrorey.

The Reggie Herring File

At Clemson: In his third season as inside linebackers coach.

College Playing Experience: Three-year starter at linebacker for Florida State.

Personal Data: Born on July 3, 1959...married the former Lisa Ward, and they have two children, Caroline and Adam.

John Latina

John Latina Centers and Guards

John Latina has been an offensive coach for a Division I program every year since 1979. He is in his second season coaching the centers and guards at Clemson, a drastic change from coaching the entire offensive line in 1994. This change has allowed him to spend more time with fewer players.

Latina showed his expertise as a teacher last year as he helped Clemson to the fourth best rushing attack in the nation. This year he hopes to build on the '95 season, but will only have one of his three starters returning this year. But if '94 was any indication of how he brings along a young offensive line, the '96 team will be at its best.

The Virginia Tech graduate, who once played against Clemson as an offensive guard (1978), has worked at Virginia Tech, Pittsburgh, Temple and Kansas State. He has already coached in a bowl game with four different schools.

During his career he has worked with Dan Marino, who led the Panthers to a 9-3 ledger and the Cotton Bowl in 1982. Paul Palmer, one of the top rushers in NCAA history with Temple, was also a member of Latina's offense in the 1980s.

Over the five years he was with the program, Kansas State's team in general and offense in particular, showed as much improvement as any in the country. In Latina's second season at Kansas State as offensive line coach and running game coordinator, the Wildcats set a school record for total offense with 4,231 yards. Kansas State advanced to a bowl game in 1992, just the second bowl appearance in school history.

The John Latina File

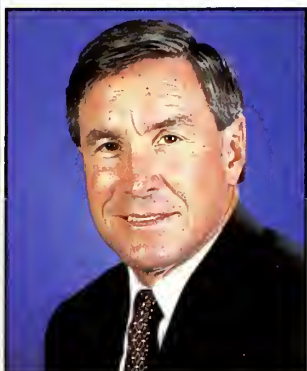

At Clemson: In his second season as guards and centers coach, his third season at Clemson.

Previous Coaching Experience: College - Assistant coach at Virginia Tech (1979-81); assistant coach at Pittsburgh (1982); offensive line coach at Temple (1983-88); running game coordinator at Kansas State (1989-93); offensive line coach at Clemson (Dec. 1993-1994); offensive guards and centers (1995-present).

Education: Received a bachelor's degree from Virginia Tech (1979).

College Playing Experience: Four-year letter winner at Virginia Tech as an offensive guard (1975-78).

Personal Data: Born September 18, 1957...he and his wife Michele have two sons John Jr. (12) and Michael (9).

Mac McWhorter

Mac McWhorter Offensive Tackles/Tight Ends

Mac McWhorter is in his rookie season at Clemson. He arrives from Georgia, where he spent the last five years as an offensive line coach. The Georgia native is coming off a successful stint in Athens, where he worked with All-American Eric Zeier from 1991-94, and a "tough-nose" running game in '95. He helped Georgia to set numerous team records in many different categories in the last five years. The Dogs led the SEC in rushing and passing during his career with the Bulldogs.

Coach McWhorter played football at Georgia in the early '70s as an offensive lineman; so he is no stranger to the surroundings of Death Valley. He has played and coached in many big bowl games, including the Gator, Peach, Hall of Fame, Citrus, and Sun Bowls.

McWhorter was an AP All-Southeastern Conference selection as a guard in 1973. He was also an honorable mention All-American and was named captain of the Bulldogs. Georgia played in two bowl games during his career.

McWhorter has been a college coach each of the last 16 years and 12 of those years he worked with either Georgia or Georgia Tech. He also coached two years at ACC rival Duke (1990-91). Altogether, McWhorter has coached in six bowl games.

The Mac McWhorter File

At Clemson: In his first year as offensive tackles and tight ends coach.

Previous Coaching Experience: High School - offensive line at Duluth High School (1974-75); offensive coach/offensive line at Douglas County Comprehensive High School (1975-76); offensive coordinator at Douglas County Comprehensive High School (1976-79); Head Coach at Villa Rica High School (1979-80). College - assistant coach/offensive line at Georgia Tech (1980-87); assistant head coach/offensive line at Alabama (1987-88); assistant coach/offensive line at Alabama (1988); Head Coach at West Georgia College (1988-90); assistant coach/offensive line at Duke (1990-91); assistant coach/offensive line and tight ends at Georgia (1991-95); offensive tackles/tight ends at Clemson (1996-present).

Education: Received a bachelor's degree from Georgia (1974).

College Playing Experience: Earned four letters at Georgia as an offensive lineman.

Personal Data: Born June 17, 1950...he and his wife, Rebecca have two daughters: Kasay and Katie; and a son: Hamilton.

Rick Stockstill

Rick Stockstill Wide Receivers

Rick Stockstill has been around successful programs and record setting offenses his entire coaching career. In his first year as quarterback coach at Clemson (1989), the Tigers set a school record for completion percentage (60%). The Tigers led the Atlantic Coast Conference in total offense for the 1991 season, and Clemson gained the second most yards in school history in the process.

Last year Clemson had its third most productive offense in history scoring over 300 points and gaining over 4500 yards of total offense.

Stockstill also tutored productive offenses at Central Florida and Bethune-Cookman in his early years as a football coach. As a player, he was the starting quarterback for Florida State. He guided the Seminoles to a pair of Orange Bowl appearances, a pair of top 10 rankings, and was the team captain in 1981.

It is no surprise that Stockstill has moved up the coaching ladder so swiftly because he is the product of an athletic family. His father was head coach at Fernandina Beach High School in Florida for many years. His brother, Jeff, was a starting wide receiver for the Tigers in 1982, and a reserve on the National Championship team of 1981.

Stockstill is in his eighth year with the Clemson program and the Tigers have been to bowl games in five of the previous seven seasons at Clemson. He joins Les Herrin and Whitey Jordan as the only assistant coaches in Clemson history to serve under three different head coaches.

The Rick Stockstill File

RING OF HONOR

The Clemson Ring of Honor is in its third year of existence in Clemson Memorial Stadium. On September 3, 1994, during ceremonies prior to the Clemson vs. Furman football game, Frank Howard, Steve Fuller and Banks McFadden were inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor. On September 2, 1995, Jeff Davis was added to the Clemson Ring of Honor.

The Ring of Honor is the highest honor a Clemson football player can receive. A recipient must first be a member of the Clemson Hall of Fame, earn at least an undergraduate degree, and make a significant contribution to the heritage of Clemson athletics. Honorees will have their jersey retired.

Howard was Clemson's head coach between 1940-69 and he guided Clemson to eight conference championships, six bowl games and six Top 25 seasons. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1989 and is the second winningest coach in ACC history. He had 165 wins when he retired.

McFadden was named the Nation's most versatile athlete in 1939. He was an All-American in football and basketball, the only Clemson athlete in history to do that. McFadden led Clemson to its first bowl bid ever, a 6-3 win over Boston College in the 1940 Cotton Bowl. He was the number-three pick of the 1940 NFL draft, the highest draft selection in Clemson history.

Fuller is the only football player in Clemson history to be chosen an All-American on the field and in the classroom. Fuller was a first-team Academic All-American in 1977 and 1978 and was a third-team AP All-American in 1978. Fuller, who was ACC MVP on two occasions, is still Clemson's all-time leader in total offense. He was an NCAA Top Five Award winner in 1979, the only Clemson athlete to win the award.

Davis, captain of Clemson's 1981 National Championship team was a first-team All-American that year when he led the Tigers in tackles with 175, the highest total in Clemson history. Davis was also named the MVP of the ACC and was the Defensive MVP of the Orange Bowl victory over Nebraska, the game that clinched the national championship for the Tigers.

RING OF HONOR GUIDELINES

Purpose: The charge of the Ring of Honor committee is to bestow the highest athletic award presented by the Clemson Athletic Department on deserving candidates. The committee will examine the careers of candidates in all Clemson sports.

Nominations: Nominations are made by any member of IPTAY, a member of the faculty or a relative of a worthy nominee, and are accepted up to 30 days prior to the committee meeting. The committee will meet once every two years in the month of April to vote on the nominations.

Frank Howard

Banks McFadden

Steve Fuller

Jeff Davis

Nominations will be made in the form of a letter with a complete list of accomplishments and submitted to the chair of the committee, currently Clemson Sports Information Director Tim Bourret, who will retain an active file of nominations. Letters of support may also be submitted. All nominations will remain on file for a period of three voting committee meetings (five years). The Chair of the Committee will screen all nominations to make sure they meet eligibility requirements.

Eligibility: This committee will recognize individuals who have demonstrated consistent and unique national excellence in their sport during their Clemson career. Their accomplishments must be significant on an individual and team basis. Their statistical accomplishments must be noteworthy, but they should also have an outstanding record in terms of leadership. In general, they must have made a noteworthy contribution to the history of the Clemson Athletic Program.

Athletic accomplishments after their Clemson career are not a primary consideration in the nomination, but they must retain an unblemished record of citizenship after they leave Clemson.

A candidate must be a member of the Clemson Hall of Fame and must hold a baccalaureate degree from an accredited four-year University or college.

Financial contributions to Clemson University will not be a consideration when evaluating the candidates.

For a coach to be nominated he or she must be retired from coaching that sport at the college level.

Selection Process: Each member of the 11-person selection committee will cast one vote per sport. An honoree must obtain at least seven votes to be selected. There will be just one ballot. The committee does not have to select any honorees at its meeting. There shall be no more than one honoree in a sport for every two years.

Conferring: In the sport of football, the honoree will have his name, number, years participated and helmet enshrined in the Ring of Honor at Clemson Memorial Stadium. In the sport of basketball, the honoree's jersey will be hung from the rafters of Littlejohn Coliseum. In the sport of baseball a jersey replica will be hung from the fence of Tiger Field. Other sports will establish appropriate sites at the home facility.

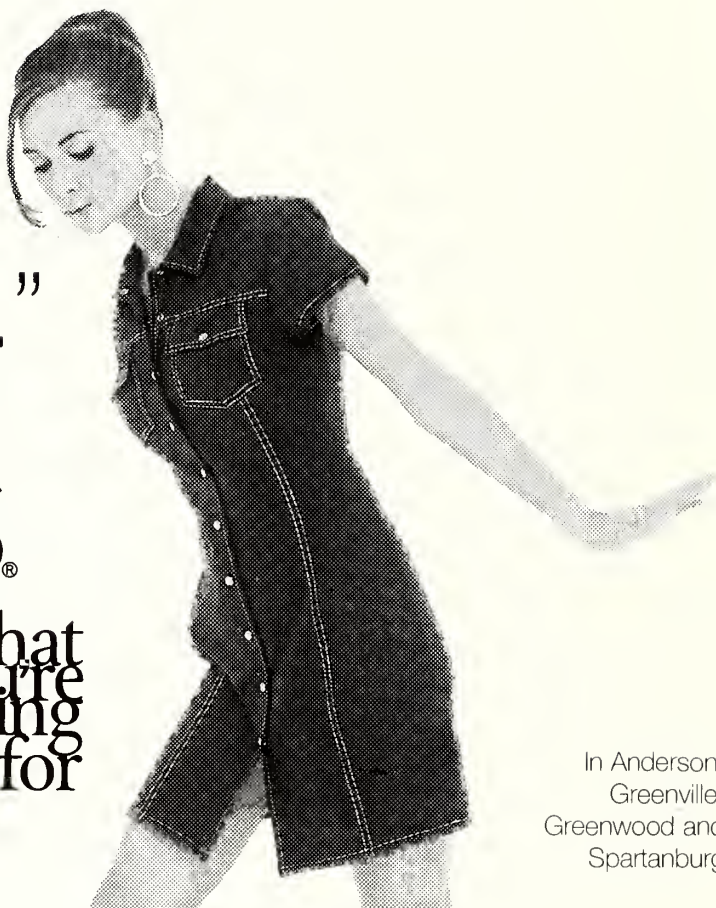

When a student-athlete is selected the person's jersey is honored, but the jersey number may be worn in the future. However, it is encouraged that the number be issued only on special occasions. These occasions are determined by the head coach and athletic director. The ceremony honoring the recipient will be determined from a meeting between the honoree, the athletic director, the committee chair and the head coach of the sport involved.

ACC FOOTBALL

*Since the league's inception in 1953, ACC schools have captured 56 NCAA and AIAW championships, including 27 in men's competition and 29 in women's. In addition, 96 men and 24 women have earned the coveted title of the NCAA champion.

*The ACC is one of only two conferences to capture three or more national football titles since 1980. Clemson laid claim to the league's second title in 1981, Georgia Tech followed suit in 1990 while Florida State pocketed national title number four in 1994.

*The nine schools that take to the field this fall under the ACC banner have produced 310 first or second team gridiron All-Americans and 48 first-team academic All-Americans. ACC teams have had 1,336 players selected in the annual professional football draft, including 82 first-round draft selections.

*If success is best measured in terms of wins and losses, the ACC over the years has proved itself to be among the elite in Division I-A football. After posting a 3-1 bowl mark in 1995, the ACC moved past the Pacific-10 as the conference with the best all-time bowl winning percentage. The league's teams are a combined 76-63-5 (.545) in post-season play.

*Ten times over the past 16 years, an ACC member school has claimed the CFA Academic Achievement Award which is awarded to a CFA member institution with the highest graduation rate among members of its football team. The ACC Academic Honor Roll record was broken for the 10th-straight year as 1,185 student-athletes were recognized for their work in the classroom.

*The 1995-96 academic year concluded with the league pocketing two more national team titles and seven individual NCAA crowns. In all, the ACC has won 23 national team titles the last six years.

*In addition, seven ACC schools - North Carolina (6), Virginia (21), Florida State (23), Clemson (27), N.C. State (32), Maryland (34) and Duke (39) were ranked in the Top 40 of the Sears Directors' Cup, an all-sports award honoring the Division I school with the best performance by women's and men's athletic teams during the 1995-96 academic year.

*The ACC placed at least one team in the Top 10 nationally in 13 of the 23 sports sponsored by the league. Other records of note during the 1995-96 season include 83 teams competing at the NCAA Championships, four bowl teams and 20 Top 10 showings.

*Six ACC teams, in six different sports, representing three of the nine member institutions, earned a No. 1 ranking during the course of the past academic year.

*The ACC set a single season attendance mark in 1995 averaging an all-time high 46,588 fans per game. The conference drew more than 2.2 million fans for a fifth straight year. Over 51 home dates, ACC schools attracted 2,376,003, the third highest total in league history and a five percent increase over 1994. ACC teams played to 89 percent of their stadiums' capacity.

*For the second year in a row, five ACC players were among 24 players selected to the Hitachi/CFA Scholar Athlete team. Florida State's Todd Rebol, Clemson's Andye McCrorey, N.C. State's Jonathan Risser, North Carolina's Russell Babb and Wake Forest's Rusty LaRue were selected.

*ACC football teams made 24 appearances on television during the 1995 season. League teams made 11 appearances on ABC, nine on ESPN, and one each on CBS, NBC, TBS, and Prime.

Play of the Year

The key game of the 1981 regular season was a 13-3 victory over Georgia, the defending National Champion. With Clemson leading 7-0, Georgia was trying to run out the clock at their own 34 yard line. Precocious freshman William Perry jarred the ball loose from Herschel Walker and also recovered the fumble. Donald Igwebuike then booted a 39-yard field goal with 11 seconds left to give the Tigers a 10-0 lead at intermission and more importantly, a lot of momentum, momentum that carried over the rest of the season.

Defense Dominates Early

Clemson won its first four games, but averaged only 315 yards per game in the process. Clemson never led after the first period in any of the first four games. But, the Tiger defense dominated early, allowing only 5.3 points and 235 yards per game over the first four games. Ten different players had sacks in the first four games. The Clemson defensive line had a lot to do with that. The group pictured at left had five players (James Robinson, Jeff Bryant, William Perry, Dan Benish and Jim Scott) who went on to play pro football.

August 12, 1981—Clemson Head Coach Danny Ford welcomed 135 players, including 18 returning starters and 49 lettermen to preseason camp. Clemson returned all 11 starters on offense, a first in school history.

August 22, 1981—Clemson held an abbreviated practice in Death Valley on this Saturday. It was cut short because the Tigers were practicing poorly. "In general we did not deserve to be playing in Death Valley. We had fumbles, interceptions, penalties. We were not performing up to our abilities."

September 5, 1981 - Clemson opened the season with a 45-10 victory over Wofford College, which was substituted on the schedule in the spring of 1981 after Villanova dropped football. The teams traded field goals in the first quarter and for the game, Wofford controlled the ball for 35 minutes and had 17 first downs. Ironically, NAIA school Wofford was the only team to win the time of possession battle with Clemson all season. Think of the odds against Clemson winning the national championship after the first quarter of the season, a tie score with an NAIA school.

An 80-yard pass from Homer Jordan to Perry Tuttle gave the Tigers the lead for good in the second period. Jordan scored on a 14-yard run before the half and the Tigers added two more touchdowns during the third period. Clemson added another pair of scores in the final period and Wofford scored its only TD in the last quarter. Frank Magwood caught one of the TD passes, the first receiver other than Perry Tuttle to catch a touchdown pass in the first 25 games of Danny Ford's coaching era at Clemson. Jordan had 235 yards of total offense in this game.

September 12, 1981 - Clemson had to depend on its defense to beat Tulane in The Superdome, the first indoor game in Clemson history. After a field goal and a safety gave the Green Wave a 5-0 first quarter lead, the Tigers scored the only touchdown of the game on a four-yard run by tail-back Cliff Austin in the second period. The drive was only 25 yards long, as Joe Glenn recovered a fumble caused by William Devane. Clemson added two field goals by Bob Paulling of 31 and 37 yards in the fourth quarter for the final margin. The Tiger defense showed Tulane its best in Tulane's last possession as the Green Wave had a 4th and 40 at the Tulane 11. The secondary had an outstanding game, as each starting member had an interception. Clemson freshman punter Dale Hatcher became just the third punter in history to hit the 155-foot platform above the middle of the field at the Superdome. He did it three times in pregame warmups.

September 19, 1981 - Clemson forced the defending national champions into nine turnovers, including five interceptions on the way to a 13-3 victory over Georgia. Clemson scored

Clemson 13, Georgia 3

Clemson's defense forced a record nine turnovers, five interceptions and four fumble recoveries, in the landmark victory that took place on the 39-year anniversary of the opening of Death Valley. It was truly a team effort, as nine different players were responsible for the nine turnovers in that game. A first-half Homer Jordan to Perry Tuttle eight-yard scoring pass was the only touchdown of the game.

The Judge

Jeff Davis, "The Judge", was the emotional leader of the Clemson defense of 1981. He had a record 175 tackles, had double figures in tackles in every game, was a first-team All-American, the ACC Player of the Year and the Atlanta Touchdown Club, National Defensive Lineman of the Year. He was named to Clemson's Centennial Team and was inducted into Clemson's Ring of Honor last year.

Special K

Terry Kinard could lay claim to Clemson's best defensive player of all-time. In 1990 USA Today named him to their All-Decade team of College Football for the 1980s. He was a two-time first-team AP All-American, the only player in Clemson history to do that, and he won the CBS National Defensive Player of the Year award for 1982. As a junior in 1981 he led the secondary in interceptions and tackles.

the only touchdown of the game on a pass from Homer Jordan to Perry Tuttle. Donald Igwebiuke kicked a 39-yard field goal before the half and a 29-yard boot in the fourth period to cap the scoring. The Bulldogs scored a field goal on their first possession of the second half to get their only points. The Tigers got their first ranking of the year after the game, 19th in AP and 18th in UPI. Georgia was fourth ranked coming into the game and it was the highest ranked team Clemson has ever beaten and remains the highest ranked win in the 55-year history of Death Valley. The Clemson defense forced nine turnovers, an all-time Clemson record for the Tiger defense. Herschel Walker, who had led the Bulldogs to the National Championship the previous year, had 111 yards, but he could not cross Clemson's goal line. It would be the only regular season loss of Walker's Georgia career.

October 3, 1981 - Kentucky completely stymied the Clemson offense in the first half and led 3-0 at intermission. It marked the fourth straight game in which the eventual National Champions did not lead after the first quarter. However, the Tigers took the second half kickoff and drove 83 yards in 13 plays and Kevin Mack scored from 11 yards out. Clemson took advantage of a Wildcat fumble on the next possession and Homer Jordan scored from the three. Chuck McSwain scored the final points on a 3-yard scamper after the 94-yard drive that consumed nearly six minutes. Clemson's defense held Kentucky to 97 yards in the second half while the Tiger offense amassed 213 of their own. The Tigers, who had moved to 14th in both polls after an open date, now moved into the Top Ten for the first time, ranked 9th in AP and 10th in UPI.

October 10, 1981 - Clemson opened its Atlantic Coast Conference schedule against Virginia, a team that had never beaten the Tigers in 20 attempts. Donald Igwebiuke got the Tigers'

Homecoming game started with a 22-yard field goal and Cliff Austin scored from 42-yards out to give Clemson a 10-0 halftime lead. The Tigers added two third-quarter touchdowns, one coming on a five-yard run by Jeff McCall and another Austin score from the one to up the Tiger lead to 24-0 at the end of the third quarter. Igwebiuke added a 32-yard field goal in the final stanza to complete the scoring. On the day, the Tigers ran up 426 yards of total offense. Clemson continued its climb in the polls after the shutout by moving to sixth in AP and seventh in the UPI tally.

October 12, 1981—Jeff Davis posed for his All-America promotion photos at the Anderson Judicial Circuit Court. Davis was known as "The Judge" and assistant sports information director Kim Kelly arranged for the photo session and the promotion campaign. Davis ended the season as the first Clemson linebacker in history to earn first-team All-America honors and he was named ACC Player of the Year.

Tigers are 10-8CIOUS

Clemson's second landmark victory of 1981 took place at Chapel Hill on November 7. It remains the only battle of top 10 teams in ACC history. The Clemson defense was outstanding, led by Jeff Davis, Jeff Bryant and Bill Smith (pictured) and held the Tar Heel running game to but 84 yards in 42 attempts. Fittingly, a defensive play won the game as Jeff Bryant recovered an errant lateral with 57 seconds left to preserve the victory.

The most bizarre day of the 1981 season was the 82-24 victory over Wake Forest. This Halloween Day Massacre featured a record 756 yards total offense, 35 first downs and 536 yards rushing, marks that still exist today. Chuck McSwain scored three touchdowns for the Tigers, who were an incredible 12-12 on third-down conversions and never had to punt.

Tiger Timeline

October 17, 1981 - Clemson had its most productive first half of the season to date, while the offense limited the Duke Blue Devils to just three points. The victory avenged a 34-17 Duke victory at Clemson the year before, a contest in which Duke quarterback Ben Bennett taunted Clemson defenders on a late touchdown run.

The Tigers added two third-quarter scores but Duke also passed for a touchdown, making the first time in 18 quarters that Clemson had given up a six-pointer. The Tigers' offense rolled up 563 yards on the afternoon (third highest in Clemson history at the time), with quarterback Homer Jordan gaining 245. He moved up to number-six in the nation in passing efficiency after the game, the highest ranking ever (at the time) by a Clemson quarterback. The main cog in the Clemson rushing game, however, was tailback Cliff Austin, who had 178 yards rushing on 19 carries, including one gallop for 77 yards. Austin also scored on runs of 15 and two yards. With the win, the Tigers moved to fourth in the AP poll and fifth in UPI.

October 24, 1981 - N.C. State scored the first rushing touchdown of the season on the Tigers on a 13-yard run by Larmont Lawson on the Wolfpack's second drive. Clemson came right back, though, with a 39-yard field goal by Donald Igwebuike, and the Tigers took the lead in the second period by putting together a 10-play, 65-yard drive that saw Cliff Austin go over from the one. Jeff McCall locked up the game with his 15-yard touchdown with 8:30 left in the game. Jordan had the best rushing day of his career with 104 yards on 21 carries. The Tigers received their highest ranking ever after this game, as they moved to third in the writers' poll and fourth in the coaches' poll.

October 31, 1981 - Wake Forest brought a potent passing attack to Clemson, but this was to be the greatest offensive day in Tiger history. The 82-24 win set 11 Clemson records and tied three others, broke four conference records, and three stadium marks were set. The 82 points were the third highest in Clemson history and the most ever by an ACC team. Even with all the scoring by Florida State in recent years, it remains the highest scoring game in ACC history.

Clemson had 536 yards rushing, 756 yards of total offense, including 391 in the second half. Eleven different players had rushing yardage and nine different players scored, including three touchdowns by Chuck McSwain and two by Cliff Austin. Perry Tuttle became Clemson's all-time receiving yardage leader with 161 yards in the game, giving him 2225 yards for his career.

Freshman Craig Crawford scored on a 72-yard run in the fourth period, the first carry of his career. He was not even listed in the program and when he crossed the goal line no one in the pressbox knew who had scored. Perhaps the most awesome stat for Clemson that day con-

ACC Title Clincher

Clemson clinched its seventh ACC Championship with a 21-7 win over Maryland, a team that had beaten the Tigers eight of the last nine years. Homer Jordan was at his best, hitting 15-18 passes for three touchdowns in the first half. The Clemson defense, led by William Devane (at left), was awesome, holding Boomer Esiason to 15-38 passing.

Orange Bowl Clincher

Clemson clinched its first Orange Bowl bid in 25 years with a 16-point win over South Carolina in Columbia. Chuck McSwain raced for a career high 151 yards and two scores to lead the offense, while brother Rod McSwain provided the big play with a blocked punt that led to Clemson's first touchdown.

cerned third down conversions. Clemson was a record 12-12 on third down in the contest. The Tigers again moved up in the polls, this week to second in AP and third in UPI.

The Clemson Tiger mascot did a record 536 pushups this day. He could have done 76 more. After Clemson scored its 11th touchdown, the Tiger was too tired to do the pushups. The Demon Deacon Mascot came over to the Clemson side of the field and did the 76 pushups.

November 5, 1981—Over 3,000 Clemson fans packed the University Amphitheatre for a Danny Ford Appreciation Pep Rally in preparation for the Clemson-North Carolina game in Chapel Hill. The affair, which featured many of Ford's former teammates and high school coach, was organized by Jane Robelot, then the head of Central Spirit, and now CBS This Morning Anchor. Robelot went as far as calling Bear Bryant from Frank Howard's office in an attempt to get Bryant, Ford's college coach, to attend the rally. The legendary coach respectfully declined as he had his own game to prepare.

November 7, 1981 - The showdown for ACC supremacy came at Chapel Hill with Clemson meeting ninth-ranked North Carolina before a record Keenan Stadium crowd and a regional TV audience seen by over 60 percent of the country. Bill Flemming and Ara Parseghian broadcast the game that was the first and still only matchup of top 10 ACC teams in history.

After a scoreless first quarter, Brooks Barwick gave UNC a 3-0 lead, but Clemson took the ensuing kickoff and drove 81 yards in 14 plays, with Jeff McCall going the final seven yards for the score. North Carolina blocked a Clemson punt seconds before the half to cut the Tiger lead to 7-5. Donald Igwebuike's 39-yard field goal in the third quarter proved to be the difference, but Clemson's defense made several big plays, including Dale Hatcher's 47-yard punt that went out-of-bounds on the Tar Heel two, and Jeff Bryant's recovery of an incomplete lateral with 57 seconds left to preserve the win. The Tigers were recognized as the nation's second-best team after the win, as both polls put Clemson in the number-two spot.

November 9, 1981—The Sporting News became the first publication to rank Clemson number-one in the nation. It would be a couple of weeks before the major wire services followed suit.

November 14, 1981 - Clemson claimed its seventh ACC title with a 21-7 win over the Terrapins. Maryland, which had beaten Clemson eight of the last nine years, needed to win to share the conference title, but it was not to be as Homer Jordan had the best day of his career to lead the Tigers. Jordan passed for 270 yards, completing 20 of 29 and three touchdowns and had a career high 312 yards of total offense, third best single game figure in Clemson history. He was especially hot in the first half, hitting 15-18 for 211 yards and three scores.

Defense, Special Teams Set the Tone

As it had all season long, the defense set the tone for the Tigers in the National Championship game against Nebraska. "When we recovered that fumble early in the first period, we knew this game was not going to be any different from the others," said Jeff Davis. Donald Igwebuike provided three field goals and the running of Jeff McCall and Cliff Austin allowed Clemson to control the pace of the game.

Perry Tuttle caught 10 of these passes (151 yards and two touchdowns) to become Clemson's all-time reception leader. Jerry Gaillard ended his home career with his first touchdown catch, and Bob Paulling kicked three extra points, giving him 36 in a row, another Tiger record. Jeff Davis led the defense with 16 tackles, the 18th straight game he had double figures in tackles and the 28th time in his career. Clemson scored all its points in the first half and the lone Maryland score came after recovering a fumble at the Clemson seven. The Tigers remained at number-two for the second straight week after the win.

November 21, 1981 - The Tigers concluded their first perfect season since 1948 with a 29-13 win over arch-rival South Carolina. The Gamecocks took an early lead on Johnnie Wright's first quarter score, but the Tigers bounced back after Rod McSwain blocked a Chris Norman punt and Johnny Rembert fell on the ball in the end zone. Bob Paulling added a 23-yard field goal and Homer Jordan snaked his way in from 11 yards to put the Tigers up 15-7 at the half. South Carolina scored on the opening drive of the second half, but the Tiger defense shut the Gamecocks down for the rest of the game. Chuck McSwain completed the scoring with his one and 23 yard touchdown runs in the second half. McSwain had a career high 151 yards on the day and was named Player-of-the-Game by ESPN.

December 1, 1981—The morning papers reveal that Clemson is ranked number-one in the nation for the first time ever. Clemson was ranked second to Pittsburgh and Dan Marino after the South Carolina game, but the Tigers moved to number-one when Penn State drubbed the Panthers 48-14 on the Saturday after Thanksgiving. Heading into the bowls Clemson is the only Division I team (137 teams that year) with a perfect record. Clemson captured 63 of the 68 first-place votes, ahead of second place Georgia, who Clemson had already beaten that season.

December 2, 1981—Clemson starting defensive end Bill Smith proved to be the all-time Soothsayer in an article by Woody White of the Spartanburg Herald. When asked about what it meant to be number-one in the nation, Smith said, "Not too many people in the world have a chance to be on a national championship team. Down the road in the business world it will be something that will be remembered and will have value." Smith is currently a member of the Clemson Board of Trustees and has a successful real estate business.

Jordan led the Clemson offense with 180 yards total offense, as he connected on 134 yards passing and rushed for 46. He was especially effective on Clemson's last drive as he ran through the Nebraska defense for three first downs, allowing Clemson to hold onto the ball with only a seven point lead until six seconds remaining. When Andy Headen knocked down Nebraska's desperation pass, the celebration and a victory ride for Danny Ford, was on.

Championship with a 22-15 win over perennial Big-Eight power Nebraska in the 48th Orange Bowl. After a 13-3 win over 1980 National Champion Georgia at home, the Tigers worked their way to the number-one ranking in both wire service polls by season's end. The win over the Cornhuskers gave Clemson the national title and its third perfect season in history.

Nebraska took the kickoff, but three plays later, Tiger middle guard William Devane recovered a Mark Mauer fumble at the Nebraska 33. Quarterback Homer Jordan drove Clemson to the Nebraska 27 before the drive stalled, and Donald Igwebuike drilled a 41-yard field goal to put the ACC Champions up, 3-0.

Nebraska came right back, however, as the Big-Eight title holder drove 69 yards in eight plays to score on a 25-yard halfback pass from Mike Rozier to Anthony Steels. Kevin Seibel's extra point gave Nebraska the lead at 7-3 with 6:43 to go in the first quarter.

After an exchange of punts, the Clemson offense moved from the Nebraska 42 to the 21 to set up Igwebuike's second field goal. The 37-yard boot narrowed the score to 7-6.

A second quarter Phil Bates fumble gave Clemson the ball at the Nebraska 27, and the running combination of Jordan, Kevin Mack, and Cliff Austin moved the ball to the Cornhusker two. Austin, who had been stuck in the hotel elevator for two hours earlier in the day, scampered in for the score that gave Clemson a lead it would not relinquish.

On its second possession of the second half, Clemson drove 75 yards in 12 plays to score its final touchdown of the night, a 13-yard pass from Jordan to All-America receiver Perry Tuttle in the corner of the end zone. For Tuttle, it was his eighth touchdown grab of the season, which set a school record. Bob Paulling's extra point put the Tigers ahead, 19-7. The photo of Tuttle celebrating the touchdown was the cover of Sports Illustrated the following week, the only time a Clemson athlete has been on the cover of the magazine while still a Clemson athlete.

After Billy Davis' 47-yard punt return, Jordan moved the Tigers to the Nebraska 20, where Igwebuike kicked a 36-yard field goal, his third of the evening, to put Clemson ahead 22-7 with two-and-a-half minutes left in the third stanza.

Nebraska was down but not out, though. After a near-interception by Johnny Rembert, Mauer engineered an eight-play, 69-yard drive that was capped by a 26-yard run by Roger Craig. After a penalty, Craig ran in the two-point conversion from eight yards out to close the gap to 22-15 with nine minutes to play.

The Clemson defense shut down the Big Red on their final extended drive and the offense held on to the ball for nearly five-and-a-half minutes to run down the clock to six seconds. Andy Headen deflected Mauer's desperation pass to preserve the win and the championship for Clemson.

Homer Jordan was named the Offensive Player of the Game and Jeff Davis won the January 3, 1982—Clemson was proclaimed National Champion by both Associated Press and United Press International. Clemson, the only team in the nation with a perfect record, received 47 of a possible 49 first-place votes in the AP poll. Penn State and SMU received the other two.

January 7, 1982—Clemson Head Coach Danny Ford was named the National Coach of the Year by Kodak at the American Football Coaches Association convention in Houston. With the victory over Nebraska in the Orange Bowl, Ford became (and remains) the youngest coach in history (33) to win the National Championship.

January 25, 1982—The Football Writers Association of America named Danny Ford as its National Coach of the Year. Ford garnered 197 votes in the poll, that second largest victory margin in the history of the award. It was the sixth National Coach of the Year award for Ford.

January 26, 1982—President Ronald Reagan honored the Clemson football team for its National Championship. The only players who made the trip were Homer Jordan and Jerry Gaillard. Coach Danny Ford, President Bill Atchley and other administrators made the trip, that included a tour of the White House.

February 5, 1982—Danny Ford is presented the Columbus (Ohio) Touchdown Club Woody Hayes Award as the national coach of the year. Hayes, who coached against Ford in his last game as Ohio State head coach, personally presented Ford with the Award.

MEMORIAL STADIUM

In 1991, two very special anniversaries in the Clemson football tradition were observed. Not only did the 1991 season mark the 10th anniversary of Clemson's National Championship season, but it also marked the 50th birthday of the place where the Tigers won six games that season: Memorial Stadium.

In the first 54 years of Memorial Stadium, Clemson has a record of 187-70-7, including a 29-8-1 ledger over the last six seasons. Clemson had a 16-game unbeaten streak at home between 1990-92 and has a career winning ratio of 72.0 percent.

The stadium has definitely been good to the Tigers who call it home, but the stadium was constructed against the advice of at least one Clemson coach. Just before head coach Jess Neely left for Rice University after the 1939 season, he gave Clemson a message. "Don't ever let them talk you into building a big stadium," he said. "Put about 10,000 seats behind the Y.M.C.A. That's all you'll ever need".

Instead of following Coach Neely's advice, however, Clemson officials decided to build the new stadium in a valley on the western part of campus. The place would take some clearing-there were many trees, but luckily there were no hedges.

The crews went to work: clearing, cutting, pouring, and forming. Finally, on September 19, 1942, Clemson Memorial Stadium opened with the Tiger football team thrashing Presbyterian College, 32-13. Those 20,000 seats installed for Opening Day would soon grow; and grow and grow. This year Clemson celebrates its 55th year in this outstanding facility.

When the original part of the stadium was built in the early 40's, much of the work was done by scholarship athletes, including many football players. The first staking out of the stadium was done by two members of the football team, A.N. Cameron and Hugh Webb. Webb returned to Clemson years later to be an architecture professor, and Cameron went on to become a civil engineer in Louisiana.

The building of the stadium did not proceed without a few problems. One day during the clearing of the land, one young football player proudly announced that he was not allergic to poison oak. He then commenced to attack the poison oak with a swing blade, throwing the plants to and fro. The next day, however, the boy was swollen twice his size and had to be put in the hospital.

Memorial Stadium is one of the 10 largest on-campus stadiums in the nation with capacity listed at 81,474.

There are many other stories about the stadium including one stating that Frank Howard put a chew of tobacco in each corner of the stadium as the concrete poured.

Howard says that the seeding of the grass caused a few problems. "About 40 people and I laid sod on the field," he says. "After three weeks, on July 15, we had only gotten halfway through.

"I told them that it had taken us three weeks to get that far, and I would give them three more week's pay for however long it took. I also told them we would have 50 gallons of ice cream when we got through. After that it took them three days to do the rest of the field. Then we sat down in the middle of the field and ate up that whole 50 gallons."

Howard says that on the first day of the first game in the stadium, "the gates were hung at 1:00 pm and we played at 2:00 pm." But that would be all of the construction for a while. Then in 1958, 18,000 sideline seats were added and, in 1960, a total of 5,658 West end zone seats were added in response to increasing attendance. With the large end zone, "Green Grass" section, this expansion increased capacity to about 53,000.

Later, upper decks were added to each side of the stadium as crowds swelled-the first one in 1978 and the second in 1983. This increased capacity to over 80,000 which makes it one of the 10 largest on-campus stadiums in the country.

The effect spiraling inflation has had in this century can be dramatically seen in the differences in stadium construction. The original part of the stadium was built at a cost of $125,000 or at $6.25 a seat. The newest upper deck was finished in 1983 at a cost of $13.5 million, or $866 a seat.

Through the years, Memorial Stadium has become known as "Death Valley." It was tagged this by the late Presbyterian coach, Lonnie McMillan. After bringing his P.C. teams to Clemson for years and getting whipped, McMillan said the place was like Death Valley. A few years later the name stuck.

On November 16, 1974 the playing surface was named Frank Howard Field for the legendary coach because of his long service and dedication to the University.

Luckily, the stadium wasn't built behind the Y.

VICKERY HALL

Clemson University's commitment to provide its student-athletes with the very best of facilities is evident in many ways. From the soaring upper decks of Memorial Stadium, to the state-of-the-art strength training facility, young men and women from all 18 of Clemson's varsity sports have the very best in facilities for training and competition. Vickery Hall is no exception, as the $3 million structure is as impressive aesthetically as any of the other facilities. But the importance of Vickery Hall to the Clemson University Athletic Department is not found in the structure itself, but in the many programs that the building houses.

Vickery Hall opened in the spring of 1991 and is the only facility in the country built solely for the all-around education of student-athletes. The two-story, 27,000 square-foot building is open throughout the day and into the evening to accommodate the extended schedules of student-athletes.

The mission of the Student-Athlete Enrichment Programs is to monitor, guide, and encourage student-athletes to fulfill their long term goal, and to achieve their academic and career potential.

"Vickery Hall is one of the most important facilities the Clemson University Athletic Department has ever built or will ever build. It makes a philosophical statement about institutional commitment—giving our student-athletes the same opportunity to achieve their full potential academically that we give them athletically. We're very serious about that," said Athletic Director Bobby Robinson.

Vickery Hall focuses on five primary areas to meet the student-athlete's needs.

Academic Support

Clemson's Student-Athlete Enrichment Programs have provided one of the best academic support and advising programs in the nation.

The Academic Counselor performs a variety of duties to track academic progress. Their duties include providing assistance in registration and priority scheduling, contacting faculty, personally checking classes, recording information, counseling sessions with student-athletes, providing diagnostic testing, and directing career aspirations.

The academic support goals are to improve academic performance, assist student-athletes to become goal oriented, and promote all student-athletes to maintain good scholarship, and promote independence in the academic arena.

Tutoring

One of the most prestigious programs that has received recognition essential to the growth of Vickery Hall is the tutorial program.

The Student-Athlete Enrichment Program has been granted a Level 1 certification from the College of Reading and Learning Association, International Tutor Certification Program. Of the one hundred programs certified by CRLA, the Clemson Student-Athlete Enrichment Programs is one of two student-athlete programs in the country to achieve this distinction.

Having tutor certification will enable student-athletes to be provided the highest quality of academic assistance possible. Approximately 80 tutors are hired to provide academic support in the many subject areas offered.

Computing Facilities

The Department of Student-Athlete Enrichment Programs has recognized the need for students to have access to high-quality computing equipment and has made a commitment to provide the student-athletes at Clemson with the largest computer lab in the country. Located on the first floor of Vickery Hall is the Department of Student-Athlete Enrichment Programs' Microcomputer Laboratory. The lab is open seven days a week, for 16 hours on Monday through Thursday, and limited time on Saturday and Sunday. During exam periods the lab hours are extended.

The lab staff consists of graduate students, many of whom are pursuing advanced degrees in computer science. Lab staff members are available for tutoring of any Computer Science course, as well as the many management, engineering and business courses that deal with personal computers. Student-athletes may also arrange tutoring sessions outside normal lab hours any time during the school year.

The Student-Athlete Enrichment Program is committed to providing state-of-the-art computing facilities. Seventeen new computers have recently been purchased and an additional purchase of 15 new computers is slated for the next academic year. A new computer lab has been constructed and make a total of 40 computers available for student-athletes.

All computers feature comprehensive software packages that enable student-athletes to complete assignments successfully. All computers are fully connected to the internet allowing for access of computers throughout the world for research and communication.

Career Assistance Program

The Student-Athlete Career Assistance Program is one of the most important programs provided by the staff of Vickery Hall. The philosophy of this program is to provide student-athletes with job searching skills and strategies, internships, practicum experience as well as summer employment. These programs are designed to address specific career opportunities through a program that uses each year to gain information on the student-athletes.

By using the resources available to the University, Alumni Center and the Athletic Department, former Tiger gridders James Earle is working to establish a network of businesses, companies, and executives who will help assist with The Summer Employment Assistance Program. The program's main goal is to provide the student-athlete with job experience and a work history, which he or she can apply to his or her academic discipline.

The Long Term Career Assistance Program, also coordinated by Earle, will be coordinated from the academic colleges, the Placement Center, and through the Athletic Department contacts. This program is designed to better prepare the student-athlete for full-time employment and will focus on resume writing and interview techniques.

Personal Growth Program

Another aspect of Clemson University's commitment to help student-athletes reach their potential in all areas of their life—academically, athletically, and socially, is the personal growth program. This particular area of student development is designed to enhance and support the lives of student-athletes during their enrollment in college as well as in their life experiences after graduation.

The Vickery Hall Staff realizes that student-athletes have more obligations than a regular college student. The personal growth program seeks to eliminate some of the stresses of adjustment to the higher level of academics and athletics. It is the group's special task to assist the student-athlete by creating a finely tuned balance of all areas to ensure success in obtaining a Clemson University degree, by supporting successful athletic practice and competition, enhancing personal growth, and helping with the transition to life after college.

The purpose of the Personal Growth and Development Program is to assist the student-athlete in making a successful transition into his/her university and athletic life. These programs will provide the student-athlete the opportunity to examine and explore issues and topics pertaining to his/her values, personal health and wellness, behavior, and goals. The specific topics will encompass both general transition issues and specific athletic issues as well.

Vickery Hall is a 27,000 square foot facility built specifically for student-athlete enrichment. The Dick Hendley computer room is a major aspect of that building.

PETER FORD

by Jessica Reo

"I could retire to Jamaica, an island somewhere, I've seen lots of pictures, and the water is so blue," says Peter Ford, Clemson's starting cornerback. And wife Shenequa adds, "any beautiful island, where we can be alone for a change."

Being alone for these newlyweds, married May 15, 1995, is something that doesn't happen very often, because the Fords are anything but typical. Peter Ford, identical twin, husband, father, football player, student, and consequently, role model, is anything but alone at any time, day or night.

Peter and Shenequa met during their freshman year in high school in Sumter, SC. Peter, new to South Carolina, had moved from Montana prior to the first year of high school. Neither of the two realized what would be in store for them a mere six years down the road. Marriage, a child, the balancing act of school, a family, and time with one another. They have done well together, though, are happy, and easily finish one another's sentences, a sign of two who are connected on a different level than most of us.

The two have a one-and-a-half year old daughter, Alexis, who demands constant attention from mom and dad. "She keeps you going," says Peter, who ranks seventh in Clemson history in interceptions with 10. "She's the energizer," adds Shenequa.

"It's really difficult," says Peter of the balancing act. "Shenequa has to schedule her classes (at Tri-County Tech) so that she can be home when I'm not. It's a test. We don't spend a lot of time together, except maybe one night a week." During the season, when Peter is constantly shuttling between class, study hall, practice, and team meetings, nights don't end until 7:00 or 8:00 pm. "I'm ready to relax at night and that's about the time Lexi kicks in, wanting to spend time with me," says Peter.

"There's a lot of practice involved," says Shenequa. "Patience and time management. There's a lot to deal with." But the two deal with everything together.

But dealing with everything together for the Ford family is a little different than with most families. See, dealing with things is a family matter, but lots of times, there others around. Take, for instance, the fact that Peter was already part of a couple when he met Shenequa. But before you shake your head, the other person in Peter's life is his identical twin, Andy, who is also a cornerback for the Clemson football team. Between the two men, they have put in more playing time on the field than most see in their college careers.

They have been together since birth and have been 'attached at the hip' since they could walk. Being together has never been a chore, like the typical sibling scenario, it was accepted and expected by both, and everyone handles it well. Unlike most siblings, Peter and Andy wanted to be together in college for a few reasons.

"It was a hard decision (to come to college together) and we thought about it a lot," says Peter. "At first, I wanted to go out of state, then we thought about it and we really enjoyed playing together at Sumter High School. We had a lot of fun together and we wanted to play four more years together. We knew we had a long time to go our separate ways. We wanted this last chance to play together and I enjoy playing with Andy."

And what does Peter's wife have to say about the two doing just about everything together? "Actually, I knew that they would be together in college. Everybody knew it. It was the same way in Sumter. When you saw one, you saw the other. I was happy because when they are together, they are happy. I really couldn't see them apart and when they do eventually split, it's going to be an adjustment for everybody," says Shenequa.

And plans for the two brothers in the future have the possibility of taking separate roads, but never being far apart. A 'separation' of sorts is not in the cards for the two brothers. "We have a lot of different ideas (about the future)," says Peter. "We really want to open a restaurant together. I could see myself doing that. Andy and I both love to cook. We always try to cook up something, but we don't always get around to it."

The separate roads began to take shape when Peter and Shenequa were married, but it's only a dirt road right now. For the first time in their lives, the twins were separated by more than a room. It was the first time in the life of the two that someone else spent more time with Peter than Andy did, and it has been an adjustment for everyone. One of the first hurdles for the two, however, was distinguishing themselves from one another, which was very difficult as an identical twin.

"It's like you are married to both of them," says Shenequa with a laugh. "When there is one, there is the other. Right now, Andy almost lives with us, but even when he is not staying with us, he is still at our house. He comes in when they finish for the day and he will leave when it's time for bed."

One of the few people who has no trouble telling the two apart, is surprisingly, Peter's daughter, Alexis. "From day one, when she was able to realize who daddy was, she knew who he was," says Shenequa. "She can be in the same room with Peter and Andy, and she'll go to Peter. She just knows."

But telling them apart is something that not many people have to do, since they are seldom apart. When they are walking together, teammates refer to both as 'Twin', that way they don't have to distinguish between the two. It makes life a lot easier for some, but not for others.

"If you look at Andy and you look at Peter when they are together, one is always smiling or half-way smiling, and that's Peter," says Shenequa. "Andy very seldom smiles, he has a stern look on his face. I always told them apart because I thought that Pete had a fat face, Andy had the stern face." And she was one of the first people in Sumter to separate the two.

It was Andy who set up Shenequa and Peter. Andy was the first to meet Shenequa in a high school class and he made a prediction. "He told me that I'd be his sister one day."

It just goes to show that no one can pick out the one to spend your life with better than the one who knows you best.

Ford ranks among the Top-10 pass interceptors in Clemson history.

CLARENCE ROSE

By Tim Bourret

The Sprint International is a memorable event for most PGA Tour members because of its unusual scoring format. But, the Stableford scoring system has very little to do with the memories it sparks for former Clemson All-American Clarence Rose. This annual event represents the absolute depth of disappointment and absolute zenith of a 15-year professional golf career.

In 1990, Rose was in his 10th year on the PGA Tour. Although he had never won an event, he had earned over $1 million and was consistently in the top 60 players, never having to return to qualifying school to earn exemptions for the following year. He had earned the runnerup spot six times, including the 1989 Spring International, the only event on the tour that uses the modified Stableford scoring system. The system rewards birdies and eagles with points and the highest score wins.

Rose was having his normal solid tournament until he received a distressing call from back home. "Our son (Clark) was having some physical problems so we had taken him to the doctor to run some tests," recalls Rose. "They called me at the end of the second round and told me he had cancer. It was just a shock to think about your one-year-old son with cancer. It was just devastating."

With this obvious personal distraction, Rose's quality of play declined. After ranking 49th on the tour in earnings in 1989 with a career high $267,141, Rose skipped many events to be close to his son. He earned only $25,908 that year and failed to make enough money to keep his PGA Tour card. He played in some events in 1991, 1992 and 1993 thanks to some sponsors exemptions, many of whom were aware of his son's illness, but never earned more than $11,000, not nearly enough to get back on the tour.

Meanwhile, his son recovered and today is a healthy seven-year-old. "Thank goodness we caught the cancer in time and the doctors did all the right procedures." But, the time he had taken to be with his family in the recovery period set his golf game, his profession, back.

"In 1995 I decided I needed to do what I could to get back on the tour. My son was fine and I needed to put in the time to get back on tour, or find another profession. I still had 12 years before the Senior Tour, so I had to do something to get back on track."

The answer, and in many ways the salvation of his career, was the NIKE Tour. The NIKE Tour is a minor league of professional golf, but a very competitive tour that affords golfers a shot at qualifying for the regular tour.

"My family was 100 percent behind me. They traveled with me and gave me great support. We went to some places we hadn't been, but looking back it was a good decision." Rose finished in the top 10 on the NIKE Tour in 1995 and won the Pensacola Open. The ranking advanced him immediately to the final round of qualifying school. Last fall he finished 17th in qualifying school and thus regained exempt status for the first time in five years.

After a slow start, Rose got hot in the summer and made a number of cuts in succession. In August he returned to Colorado for the Sprint International, the scene of his depressing moment in 1990.

But, this time, it would be the scene of the highlight of his career. "I just got on a roll and started making some birdies, and in that format it makes a big difference." Rose made a key eagle late on 17 Sunday that got him to the top of the leader board. He was tied with Brad Faxon, a former Furman golfer he had competed against at Clemson, after 72 holes. After three playoff holes and with darkness about to set in, Rose sank a long eagle putt, again on 17, and with it the first prize. It was the first tournament victory of his 15-year career.

"It was certainly an emotional victory. My entire family was there, including Clark. To hold him with that trophy really was a special moment. It was just unbelievable that I had gotten such bad news there six years earlier, and then to get such good news (winning the tournament) at the same place was really something."

It was one of the great stories of the PGA Tour this year. Such a great story that Rose served as host of Inside the PGA Tour, the weekly highlight show on the PGA Tour the weekend of October 12. "That was a lot of fun. I hadn't done anything like that before. We had to do a lot of takes, but it was great."

Rose's perseverance has been no surprise to his former Clemson Coach and current Tiger Athletic Director Bobby Robinson. "Clarence gave our program credibility," said Robinson. "It was between Clemson and Wake Forest and it was probably the first time we got a guy that Wake Forest wanted." The Deacons had won the National Championship twice in the 1970s and were on top of the college golf world at the time.

"We had not done much as far as competing in the ACC or qualifying for the NCAAs until Clarence got here. He started us moving in the right direction." Clemson challenged for an NCAA bid in 1979, Rose's first year in the program, then made its first team appearance in 1980. Rose was named a second-team All-American in 1980, Clemson's first All-American in golf. The Tigers finished 12th that year at the Scarlet Course at Ohio State and have now been to the NCAA National Tournament 15 of the last 16 years. Only Oklahoma State and Oklahoma can also make that claim.

"I was recruited by a lot of schools, but I wanted to play in the ACC," said Rose. "Bobby didn't waste any time, he told me exactly where I stood from the beginning and I knew I could play right away."

Rose said Robinson had a positive influence on his career. "I was going through some boxes the other day and I still have a letter he wrote to me when I finished at Clemson. He outlined everything I had to do to make it on the Tour. I followed his advice and I am glad I did."

Rose still follows the Clemson program, in all sports. He sports a Clemson shag bag wherever he goes. "I follow Clemson. There are a lot of ACC guys on the tour and we get after each other over football games and basketball games."

"I used to room with Larry Penley on the road, he has done a great job there. I am excited about the new University Course and the success of the program."

The Clemson program and its coaches had a positive effect on Clarence Rose, and he has fond memories of his days in Tigertown. But, chances are those memories won't rank with the experiences he has had at the Sprint International.

Rose and his family, Clark with trophy, daughter Allison and wife Jan celebrate a very meaningful Spring International Championship.

LADY TIGER BASKETBALL

By Sam Blackman

"Repeat the feat".

That's the motivational quote that will be instilled in the Lady Tigers this year by Head Coach Jim Davis as he attempts to duplicate the special 1995-96 season that was composed of an Atlantic Coast Conference Championship, 23 wins, and a NCAA Tournament appearance.

In fact, this motto will also be displayed on the Lady Tigers' practice gear and posted conspicuously in Clemson's lockerroom.

"We want to build on our ACC Championship and continue the momentum that was created, and to be a consistent championship team—a team that is looked upon in the ACC as the team to beat. We want to prove to people that last year was not a fluke.

"It was my goal when I came to Clemson to compete for a championship every year. We have been in the hunt every year, and last season was the first time we were able to get over the hump.

"Those three words 'repeat the feat' summarize what we are trying to accomplish in 1996-97."

The 1996-97 team has an excellent chance to repeat as conference champions as the Lady Tigers return four starters and 12 letterwinners. The Lady Tigers will also have four seniors on the squad and an excellent corp of seven sophomore players.

"The strength of this team is experience. There is no question that we have 14 quality players and that all 14 players will play at any time. We have never been this deep since I have been at Clemson. We have athletes that can play two or three positions. We can have a big lineup or we can go to a small, quick lineup.

"If you add to the experience and depth, our versatility, I believe those qualities will put us in the 'thick of things'.

"I really feel as though we made a commitment in recruiting that we would recruit not only great athletes, but great athletes that can shoot the basketball. We want every player that is on the floor to be defended. We have some quality shooters on this year's team."

But, as always, Davis believes defense wins championships. The Tigers won the ACC Tournament with three incredible defensive efforts at Rock Hill. "Defense is always the trademark of our team. We are going to defend and defend well. Every player has a job to do and a place to be in our defensive scheme. We stress to our players to always be intense and hard nosed on the defensive end of the floor—this sets the tone for playing Lady Tiger basketball. We have a tradition to uphold!

"The 1996-97 team has the quickness and the toughness to be one of the best defensive teams we have had at Clemson. Although we lost two outstanding seniors that helped us defensively, Dory Kidd and Stephanie Ridgeway, we have the experience and our players know our defensive schemes." Clemson had 326 steals last season or 10.5 steals per game. The Lady Tigers were also second in the ACC in field goal pct. defense with a .382 mark.

Clemson lost two members of its backcourt as Dory Kidd and Stephanie Ridgeway both graduated. However Angie Salyer, Amy Geren, Jeanette Davis, Natasha Anderson and Ito Umoah return to strengthen the backcourt. Calesha Corder is also returning for her senior season after an absence.

Angie Salyer started 20 games for the Lady Tigers last season and was second on the team in assists with 64. She also averaged 18.4 minutes per game. The 5-9 senior had a 1.4 assist-turnover ratio last season.

Junior Jeanette Davis can play guard or the small forward position. Davis averaged 6.0 points per game and was the squad's sixth leading scorer. She also was the team's second leading rebounder with a 5.0 rpg. mark. Natasha Anderson averaged seven minutes per game last season. The 6-0 sophomore had a very impressive field goal pct of .519 as she hit 41-79 from the field.

Amy Geren was Clemson's long range shooter last year. She was the Lady Tigers' third leading scorer as a freshman with a 10.0 ppg. average. She was the team's leader in three-point field goals made with 43, and was also named to the Atlantic Coast Conference's All-Freshman team. The 5-11 sophomore led the ACC in free throw pct. with a .866 mark (84-97) and finished 10th in the nation.

The Lady Tigers feature two of the premier post players in the league as Jaci Stimson and Laura Cottrell return for their senior seasons. Cottrell was named the ACC Tournament's Most Valuable Player. The 6-1 forward led the Lady Tigers in rebounding with a 8.7 rpg. mark. She is also the team's top returning scorer with a 10.9 ppg. average. Cottrell led the Lady Tigers in three-point field goal pct. with a .426 mark (29-68).

Jaci Stimson led the Lady Tigers in field goal pct. as she was 106-211 from the field for a .502 figure. The 6-3 center was third on the team in rebounding with a 4.9 rpg. figure. Stimson was also fourth on the team in scoring with a 8.7 ppg. mark.

"We have every player returning in the front court and are led by Laura Cottrell and Jaci Stimson inside. They are veterans of the ACC wars and NCAA Tournaments. They know what it takes to be successful. Jaci Stimson has made a tremendous commitment to our basketball program. She works very hard, and has worked tirelessly in the off season to elevate her game. I hope she has a good season. Her numbers have not been as high as I think they can be. I believe she is ready to explode in terms of number in scoring and rebounding."

Nikki Blassingame saw action in 31 games last year in a reserve roll and averaged 9.1 minutes per game as a freshman. The 6-3 center-forward finished the year with 64 rebounds, 33 of those were offensive. She averaged 1.9 points per game and 2.1 rebounds per contest.

Kerri Thomas is a 6-3 center who had 16 blocked shots last year and finished second on the team in that category. She played in all 31 games while picking up two starts during her sophomore season. She is currently seventh on the school's career list for most blocked shots with 52.

"Jennifer Davis returns for her junior year after being slowed by injury in her first two seasons. Her increased strength has enabled her to become a better rebounder. She will see playing time at both forward positions for us."

Autumn Sam averaged 1.6 ppg. and 1.4 rpg her freshman season in 1995-96. She played in 28 games last season. Clemson has two newcomers in the front court as Anette Percy and Marta Forns join the Lady Tigers.

Percy transferred to the Lady Tigers from Delaware and sat out the 1995-96 season, while Forns is a transfer from the University of Barcelona in Spain. Both players are sophomores. Percy averaged 11.4 ppg. her freshman year at Delaware. She was also named to the all-rookie team in the North Atlantic Conference.

Clemson is the defending ACC champion in women's basketball. Clemson swept past North Carolina, Virginia and Duke in last year's drive to the championship.

CLEMSON BASKETBALL

by Tim Bourret

When Rick Barnes first came to Clemson in March of 1994, he faced a lot of problems. His top player, Sharone Wright, decided to turn pro a year early and was the sixth pick of the NBA draft, the highest draft choice in Clemson history. Devin Gray, his only other returning starter, had a heart attack two weeks after he took the job. On top of that, Barnes was rushed to the hospital with kidney stones.

The easiest task he had in that first couple of months was scheduling. With the previously documented personnel problems, Clemson had lost its top seven scorers from 1993-94. Barnes had no problem finding non-conference teams willing to play the Tigers.

Two years later, completing Clemson's schedule is an arduous task. He and assistant coach Larry Shyatt contacted over 20 prominent teams about a home-and-home or neutral site series. Few coaches were interested.

The reason for this hesidancy when it comes to scheduling Clemson is the returning roster for the 1996-97 season. Playing with the youngest starting team in the nation (four freshmen and a sophomore), Clemson compiled an 18-11 record, including four wins over AP top 25 teams, defeated every ACC team for just the fifth time in school history, reached a national ranking of 16th in early January, and at season's end, received a berth in the NCAA Tournament, Clemson's first bid in six years.

Clemson was not suppose to be that young in 1995-96. A preseason injury to 1994-95 starting center Iker Iturbe, a knee injury to starting junior guard Bill Harder that forced him to miss all of five games and significant parts of others, combined with a torn ACL by leading scorer Merl Code, forced Barnes to play freshmen for nearly 4000 minutes a year ago.

The seven Clemson freshmen in 1995-96 scored 1,289 points and had 647 rebounds, the third highest scoring and highest rebounding class in ACC history. Five of the frosh scored at least 100 points, also a first in the storied history of the conference.

With all five starters returning from last year, plus the return of Iturbe, Code and Harder, one could make a case that the Tigers have eight returning starters for 1996-97. It is the center of optimism around a Clemson program that drew a record 150,000 fans to Littlejohn Coliseum last year and has already set a record for season ticket sales for this season.

"Chemistry has been the reason for our relative success in the first two seasons," said Rick Barnes, the first coach in Clemson history to take the Tigers to the NCAA tournament in just his second season. "The last two seasons we have had dedicated players who have bought into their roles with this team."

The depth could lead to a change in style for the Tigers in 1996-97. Barnes has nine players on his roster who have averaged at least 20 minutes a game over the course of a season, and eight players who have at least 14 career starts at the Division I level.

"We have to continue to take care of the basketball," said Barnes, whose first two Clemson teams have ranked second and third in ACC history in fewest turnovers per game. "But, I can see us playing a lot of people this year, pushing the ball a little more and getting more scores from our defense."

Barnes signed 6-9 Woni Mohamed of St. John's Prospect Hall in Maryland, and 6-6 Vincent Whitt from Greensboro, NC. Both are ranked among the top 100 players in the nation and could have an immediate impact.

Versatility has been a cornerstone of Clemson's first two years of the Rick Barnes era, thus it is difficult to categorize players according to backcourt and frontcourt. Barnes has the luxury of six players returning who have played the point guard or wing guard positions at one time or another in their respective careers.

The leader of this contingent is Greg Buckner, a junior who has started all 57 games since Barnes has been at Clemson. The Co-MVP of the 1995-96 Tigers led the team in scoring with a 13.1

average, ranked third in rebounding at 5.1 and shot 47 percent from the field. His 67 percent free throw accuracy was 15 percent higher than his freshman output.

Buckner responded with a great stretch drive to the season. He averaged 20.7 points for the last six games and shot 55 percent from the field during this time. He tallied 20 against North Carolina in the ACC Tournament, including the game-winning dunk with .6 seconds left in Clemson's first win ever over the Tar Heels in the ACC Tournament.

Terrell McIntyre is another returning starter to the Clemson squad. The sophomore from Raeford, NC started 21 of the 29 games in his freshman year and averaged 12.7 points per game, second best on the squad and second best in Clemson history for a freshman. McIntyre also led the team in assists and steals and connected on nearly 80 percent of his free throws.

Merl Code and Bill Harder are the veteran guards of the Clemson team. They began the season as the starting tandem, but both suffered knee injuries that limited their playing time and contribution level.

Code, the MVP of Clemson's 1994-95 team, was off to another team MVP start in 1995-96 with a 12.5 scoring average, but he suffered a torn ACL against Virginia on January 10 and never returned to the lineup. Harder is the only Clemson player who is definitely in his final year of eligibility. The 6-2 guard from Clemson was also off to a great start in 1995-96 until a December 28 knee injury put him on the bench. Reliable senior guard Brian Chester will also be a positive influence in the backcourt.

Andrius Jurkunas is the top returning scorer among players who would be considered pure frontcourt players. But, even that might be a misnomer for Jurkunas, who shoots from the outside like a 6-2 guard. Jurkunas connected on a Clemson freshman record 51-121 three-point goals a year ago and averaged 8.4 points per outing, third among Tiger starters.

Barnes's first Clemson team started a 6-7 center in Iker Iturbe, the smallest starting center for the Tigers in 10 years. Iturbe became a strong post defender at season's end, but at times his lack of height was a hindrance. The Spanard missed all of last year due to a blood clot in his left shoulder, but he will return for his red-shirt sophomore year. He could see some time at point guard, because of his outstanding ball handling ability.

Both Tom Wideman and Harold Jamison were key contributors as first-year freshmen and tied for the team Defensive Player-of-the-Year award. Wideman started all 29 games at center, the first Tiger freshman to start every game at center for the course of the season since Tree Rollins in 1973-74. Jamison scored 7.6 points per game and pulled down a team best 5.9 rebounds per outing in 24 minutes per game. He started only six games for the season, but ranked second on the team in field goal percentage and first in offensive rebounds.

Tony Christie is a fifth returning starter for Rick Barnes team. The native of Hartford, CT started 14 games and averaged 8.0 points per contest, including a 10-point average over his last 10 games. LeDarion Jones is a returning letterman in the frontcourt who made the most of his playing time last year. The 6-6 sophomore led the team in field goal percentage last year (.543) and scored 51 points in just 151 minutes.

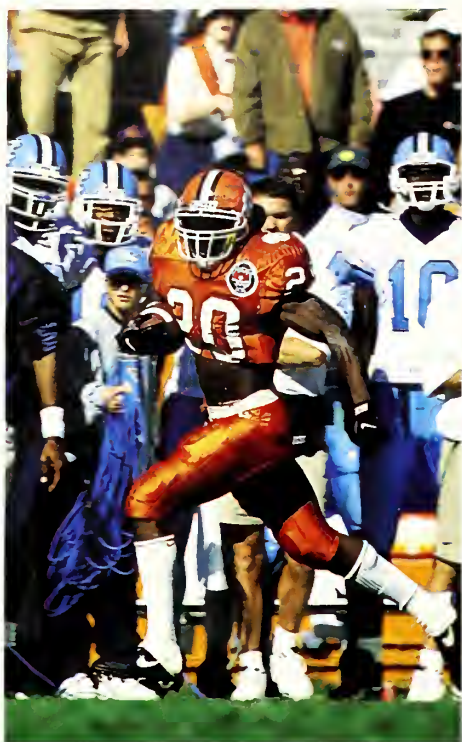

Code and Harder are the experienced senior leaders of Clemson 1996-97 team. Rick Barnes team shocked many observers by making the NCAA tournament in 1996.

Building a National University

Clemson University was founded to serve the needs of the people, and as the state's land-grant university, it has an impressive history of service to the citizens, businesses and communities of South Carolina. Now, Clemson is building a national reputation by expanding on that tradition, tackling problems at home that will have application far beyond the borders of the Palmetto State. In more ways than we have space to mention, Clemson University is reaching out to South Carolina...and beyond.

Starting at Home

clockwise:

Peter Sparks and colleagues in civil engineering's coastal hazards program are learning — and teaching area builders — how to design buildings to stand up to hurricanes.

Extension Agent Edmund Taylor is helping peach and apple growers learn to reduce pesticide and fertilizer runoff into lakes and streams.

Through Clemson's Visions for Youth program, a national model for developing community-based programs for young people, Clemson student-volunteer Kelly Harbin offers after-school help to Carter Wilson and other students at Pendleton Elementary School's homework center.

With the help of volunteers like Clemson student Drew Merck and friends at the Shriners Children's Hospital in Greenville, the National Dropout Prevention Center provides information, programs and research for teachers and school administrators all across the country.

The research and demonstration projects at Clemson Apparel Research and faculty like pattern specialist Nancy Staples help the nation's textiles and apparel industries remain competitive.

IPTAY

IPTAY is widely regarded as the father of Athletic Fundraising. It all started in 1934 and from a private meeting of a small group of Clemson supporters has sprung an organization that raised over $8 million last year. The organization plays a major role in ensuring that all 18 of the varsity sports at Clemson are given the maximum amount of scholarships offered by the NCAA.

The organization also has helped finance facilities that help student-athletes on and off the field. Vickery Hall, is a 27,000 square foot facility that houses the tutoring and advising programs for student-athletes. It is a major reason Clemson student-athletes have had their highest cumulative GPA on record for three consecutive semesters.

While IPTAY is primarily concerned with athletic fundraising, the mission of Clemson University has not been overlooked. The IPTAY Academic Scholarship Endowment was created to help meet the need for more academic scholarships for non-athletes who are highly qualified academically. The IPTAY Academic Scholarship Fund is presently the largest scholarship endowment of its kind at Clemson, providing $2.8 million in funds, currently helping 34 students at Clemson.

IPTAY Executive Director George Bennett has continued to keep Clemson among the best in the nation in terms of fund-raising by the establishment of the IPTAY Endowment Program. In April of 1994, he kicked off the beginning of the endowment of positions program at the 85th birthday celebration for former Clemson Coach Frank Howard. The endowments are secure with a $100,000 donation paid over a five-year period.

"This is a chance to broaden the horizons of IPTAY," said Executive Director of IPTAY George Bennett. "It gives an individual or a group of people an opportunity to endow a position that meant something during their college playing days, or to honor a person at a position. The money being endowed is going to secure our future as the interest is used to carry on our program forever."

"Fans interested in seeing IPTAY and Clemson athletics succeed down the road now have the perfect means to do that. They can create endowments that can't be touched whereby, only the support will continue. Thus this is a way to ensure that the programs they are in favor of are continued. It has been institutionalized at several colleges and it seemed to be a natural thing to do at Clemson. We have the people who are very supportive and willing to take part."

The first endowment was for the head football coach position to honor the legendary Frank Howard. Howard coached football at Clemson 39 years, 30 as the head coach. During his tenure the Tigers won 165 games, 100 of which were against conference foes. "Former players and friends of Coach Howard made donations over the cost of attending the celebration program and that was enough for the endowment. Their gifts were a way of permanently thanking Coach Howard for all that he did for Clemson."

"Following Coach Howard's birthday party we began to look for an individual to help us support and promote the program and Bill Hudson's name came up. He was an outstanding player at Clemson who has been equally successful in the business world. We went to him and explained the program and its goals and that we were looking for his leadership to help get the program going and he accepted."

Hudson responded favorably. "Clemson has been good to our family and I have been fortunate in business, which allowed me to be involved in this program," said the former Clemson tackle. "Two of my brothers, my son, and I came to Clemson on a scholarship. The entire family is grateful so I put the endowment of the tackle position in the family's name."

Bill Hudson, a 1956 graduate, was a three-year letter winner at tackle who played professionally for the Montreal Alouettes, the San Diego Chargers, and the Boston Patriots. He earned Pro Bowl honors in 1962. His brother Bob was also a lineman at Clemson who lettered four straight years and played over 10 years professionally.

"We have a foundation in academics and it is something special to get a letter of thanks from a student who received a scholarship through our donation," said Bill. "That's a great feeling so we were willing to do a similar thing for the athletic department. The permanency of this is what makes it so important, it will be around much longer than I am. Future generations of my family will be able to enjoy and contribute to our endowment."

Mr. Hudson sees this program growing into a large part of Clemson's athletic funding. "When other people see information on the endowment program and learn what it is about this program will grow. Success builds on success. People who are looking to honor a friend or family member now have a great means to do that."

Besides the Hudson's family endowment four other football endowments were made and one managers position in the first year. Now there are over 15 positions endowed. The goal of the program is to get every position endowed. "From the free safety to the number three player in women's tennis, we hope to have every position endowed," said Bennett. "We will likely use the Avenue of Champions as a physical place to honor these people further for the positions they have endowed. That will have plenty of space, so we will be working to have as many endowments across all of our sports."

"The personal satisfaction that they helped Clemson University, specifically the Athletic department, and that they are securing its future are the main reasons for becoming involved."

And with more involvement Clemson will have a very secure future for generations to come.

CENTENNIAL ALL-STARS

by Emily Rabon

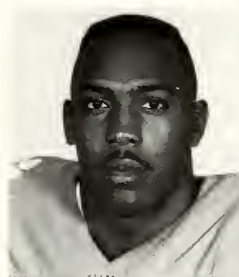

Each week we honor members of the Clemson Centennial Team as part of the celebration of 100 years of Clemson football. This week we honor two of the greatest linebackers to play for the Tigers, and four standout offensive linemen who made a significant contribution to Clemson football.

Named first-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference and All-State in 1962...played in the East-West Shrine Game at San Francisco in 1962...1963 member of the College All-Star Team that played in Chicago, IL and defeated the defending NFL champion Green Bay Packers...recipient of the Hamilton-

Morrow Award, given to the most valuable player at Clemson in 1962...drafted in the fifth round by the Los Angeles Rams (NFL) and the Houston Oilers (AFL)...played six years with the Rams and one season with the Eagles.

Levon Kirkland, Outside Linebacker, 1988-91:

Semifinalist for 1991 Lombardi Award...first-team All-American that season according to Kodak/AFCA, Sporting News, Scripps Howard and Walter Camp and a second-team choice by UPI and Football News...named a second-team AP and UPI All-American in 1990 as a junior...only underclassman to be a finalist for the 1990 Butkus Award...ranked fourth in Clemson history in career sacks with 19 and sixth in career tackles for loss with 40...tied with William Perry for second in fumble recoveries with seven...third on Clemson's number-one ranked rushing defense in tackles in 1991 with 67...standout on Clemson's number-one ranked total defense in 1990...earned MVP honors in the 1989 Mazda Gator Bowl with nine tackles, a sack and three quarterback pressures...second-round draft pick of the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1992...currently a starter for the Steelers and the team's leading tackler in 1996...had 11 tackles for the Steelers in the 1996 Super Bowl.

Harry Olszewski, Offensive Guard, 1967:

First-team consensus All-American in 1967...only unanimous choice to All-ACC team in 1967, it was his second straight year on the team...named to the Silver Anniversary All-ACC team in 1977, Clemson's only selection to that squad...played in the East-West Shrine Bowl and the Senior Bowl...scored a

12-yard touchdown against South Carolina his junior year, playing offensive guard, no Clemson offensive lineman has scored since...won ACC and State Jacobs Blocking Trophy in 1967...started 30 consecutive varsity games...drafted in third round by the Cleveland Browns...played for Montreal Alouettes, 1969-1970...1980 Clemson Athletic Hall of Fame inductee, he made it into the South Carolina Hall of Fame in 1990.

Bubba Brown, Linebacker, 1975-1978:

Won the Renwick-Flanders Award in 1976 for the most improved Clemson player...Clemson's career tackle leader with 515, 45 more than any other player in Clemson history...ACC's Defensive Player of the Week for Clemson's victory over NC State in 1978...was named National Defensive Player of the Week by Sports Illustrated for his performance in the N.C. Poole Award, which goes to the best offensive and defensive players against South Carolina, in 1978...led Clemson in tackles in 1979 with 150, which is still the fifth best single season total in Clemson history.

Bob Sharpe, Center, 1938-40:

Started as a walk-on in 1938 and the next year was voted All-State and All-Southern (1939)...captain of the 1939 team that was 8-0-1 and appeared on the 1940 Cotton Bowl, Clemson's first post-season game...named to the All-Bowl team, a team chosen by the United Press from teams that played on New Year's (1940)...a key reason Allens' Creations, Inc. - Frame & Art Gallery - in Clemson sadly announces the unexpected death of artist Bill Stroud on July 6, 1996. Mr. Stroud, of Cayce, S.C., was 46 years old.

On April 1, 1996 a cooperative effort between Allens' Creations, Inc., Mr. Stroud, Clemson University, and the Walker Course led to the release of "The Tiger Paw Hole" - #17 The Walker Course At Clemson University. This is the ONLY "officially authorized" and licensed limited edition print of the signature hole on the new golf course at Clemson. At the time of his death, Mr. Stroud had signed only 700 of the 1000 copies of "The Tiger Paw Hole."

Mr. Stroud's first Clemson print release was "On a Clear Day" featuring Tillman Hall in the winter. The remaining copies of "The Tiger Paw Hole" and "On A Clear Day" will be sold on a first-come first-served basis. Please call for availability and current prices.

To view other Clemson prints you can call or write for color brochures - or you can check out our Internet web site at <http://www.allenscreations.com>. You can e-mail your questions or comments to: aci@innova.net.

STADIUM EMERGENCIES

The Clemson University Athletic Department provides the following for your safety and emergency medical needs:

1. Advanced cardiac life-support stations in four locations (North stands, upper North deck, South stands, Upper South deck). These units are staffed with skill-care nurses, physicians, cardiologists, internists, paramedics, and EMTs.
2. Mobile units of EMTs and paramedics are strategically located throughout the entire stadium.
3. Ambulances with life-support equipment are available in North stand and South stand areas and have prearranged routes for evacuation to local hospitals.

Learn to recognize these personnel and facilities.

WHAT TO DO IF EMERGENCIES ARISE:

Please step back and give the organized EMS personnel room to work. Well-intentioned attempts to help by untrained persons interfere with the efficiency of the EMS system. If you have basic or advanced training in specific life-support methods, make your qualifications known and offer your help. Untrained personnel can frequently be more harmful than helpful.

Most emergencies occurring at the stadium result from pre-existing medical conditions. Bring your medical identification card or wear medical identification jewelry. Moderation is the key with dress, food, beverage intake, and physical exertion. The two most frequent medical problems at football games are allergic reactions to insect stings and heart attacks.

INSECT STINGS:

Common at outdoor events. Treat immediately with ice and seek medical advice. If allergic, carry a kit from your physician with you.

HOW TO RECOGNIZE A HEART ATTACK:

The symptoms of a heart attack vary, but the usual warning signs are:

1. Uncomfortable pressure, fullness, squeezing or pain in the center of your chest lasting for two minutes or more.
2. Pain spreading to the shoulders, neck, jaw, arms, or back.
3. Dizziness, fainting, sweating, nausea, and/or shortness of breath.

EXPECT A DENIAL

Frequently heart attack victims deny they are having a heart attack. The event is frightening or they don't want the embarrassment of a false alarm. Therefore, they delay getting help by ignoring their symptoms or rationalizing, "It's just indigestion."

Find out what's really wrong. Prompt response can dramatically increase chances of survival and recovery.

New therapies have been developed that can minimize heart damage and save lives if treatment begins within the first few hours of symptom onset. "Time is muscle." Get help or get to a hospital immediately.

CLEMSON TRADITIONS

Death Valley

Name synonymous with Clemson Memorial Stadium. The Stadium was dubbed this affectionate title by the late Lonnie McMillan, a former coach at Presbyterian. He used to take his teams to play at Clemson, and they rarely scored, never mind gained a victory. Once he told the writers he was going to play Clemson up at Death Valley because his teams always got killed. It stuck somewhat, but when Frank Howard started calling it that in the fifties, the term really caught on. It is now in its 55th year.

Many people think the name is derived from the fact that there rests a cemetery outside the fence on the pressbox side of the stadium. But, although it would make sense, the name was first coined by Lonnie McMillan.

First Friday Parade

The Clemson football season kicks off each year with the annual First Friday Parade. The once a year event takes place on the Friday afternoon prior to the first home football game. Floats from various fraternities and sororities and other campus organizations are represented in the parade that rolls down main street in Clemson. The parade culminates at the Amphitheatre in the middle of campus where the first Pep Rally of the year takes place.

The Grand Marshall of the Parade is featured at the Pep Rally. Recent Grand Marshalls have ranged from current PGA professional Dillard Pruitt, to College Football Hall of Fame legends Jess Neely and Frank Howard, to noted television announcers Brent Musburger and Ara Parseghian.

Homecoming

Clemson holds a classic homecoming every year. Displays by fraternities and sororities that are months in the making, are built on Bowman Field the week prior to the Homecoming Weekend. It is an event that draws alumni and friends of Clemson from all over the country.

The Friday evening prior to the game, Tigerama is held in Death Valley, an event that attracts over 35,000 fans. The Homecoming Queen and her court are presented in addition to Homecoming skits, a pep rally and a large and loud fireworks display.

The first homecoming game played at

"Death valley really lives up to its image. I was impressed with this stadium. When you put 80,000 people in here, it really feels like they are on top of you. I would hate to be Georgia Tech or whoever else comes in here."

Steve Young, San Francisco 49ers

Clemson took place on September 30, 1922 when Clemson met Centre. Clemson has a 52-17-3 record on Homecoming games over the years, a .742 winning percentage and has outscored the opposition 1519-930 in those previous 71 games. The average margin of victory is 21 to 12. Clemson has been especially successful on Homecoming in recent years, posting a 22-1-2 record since 1970.

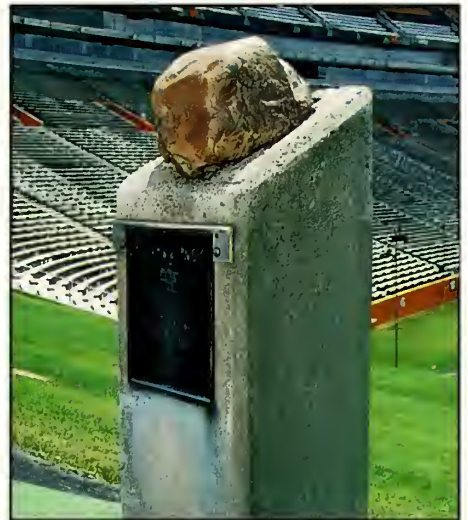

Orange Pants

The tradition of the Clemson team wearing orange pants is new according to tradition standards. The Tigers first wore the all orange uniform for the final game of the 1980 season against South Carolina. Clemson upset the 14th ranked Gamecocks and Heisman Trophy winner George Rogers, 27-6. The victory set the stage for Clemson's National Championship run of 1981.

Overall, Clemson is 29-6 in Orange pants since that 1980 game, including a 16-1 record in games played in the month of November. The Tigers have won seven in a row in orange pants, including last year's important victory over North Carolina. Clemson has nine wins over top 20 opponents when wearing Orange pants, including the 22-15 National Championship clinching win over Nebraska in the 1982 Orange Bowl.

Howard's Rock

When the Clemson team gathers to Run Down the Hill the players rub Howard's Rock

Clemson players have been rubbing Howard's Rock prior to running down the hill since 1967.

because of the mystical powers it is supposed to give Clemson players. The rock is mounted on a pedestal at the top of the hill and was given to Coach Frank Howard by a friend (S.C. Jones '19) who picked it up in Death Valley, CA. The Rock was first placed on the pedestal at the top of the hill on September 24, 1966, a game Clemson won 40-35 over Virginia. The team started rubbing the rock for the first game of 1967, a 23-6 win over Wake Forest on September 23, 1967.

Running Down the Hill

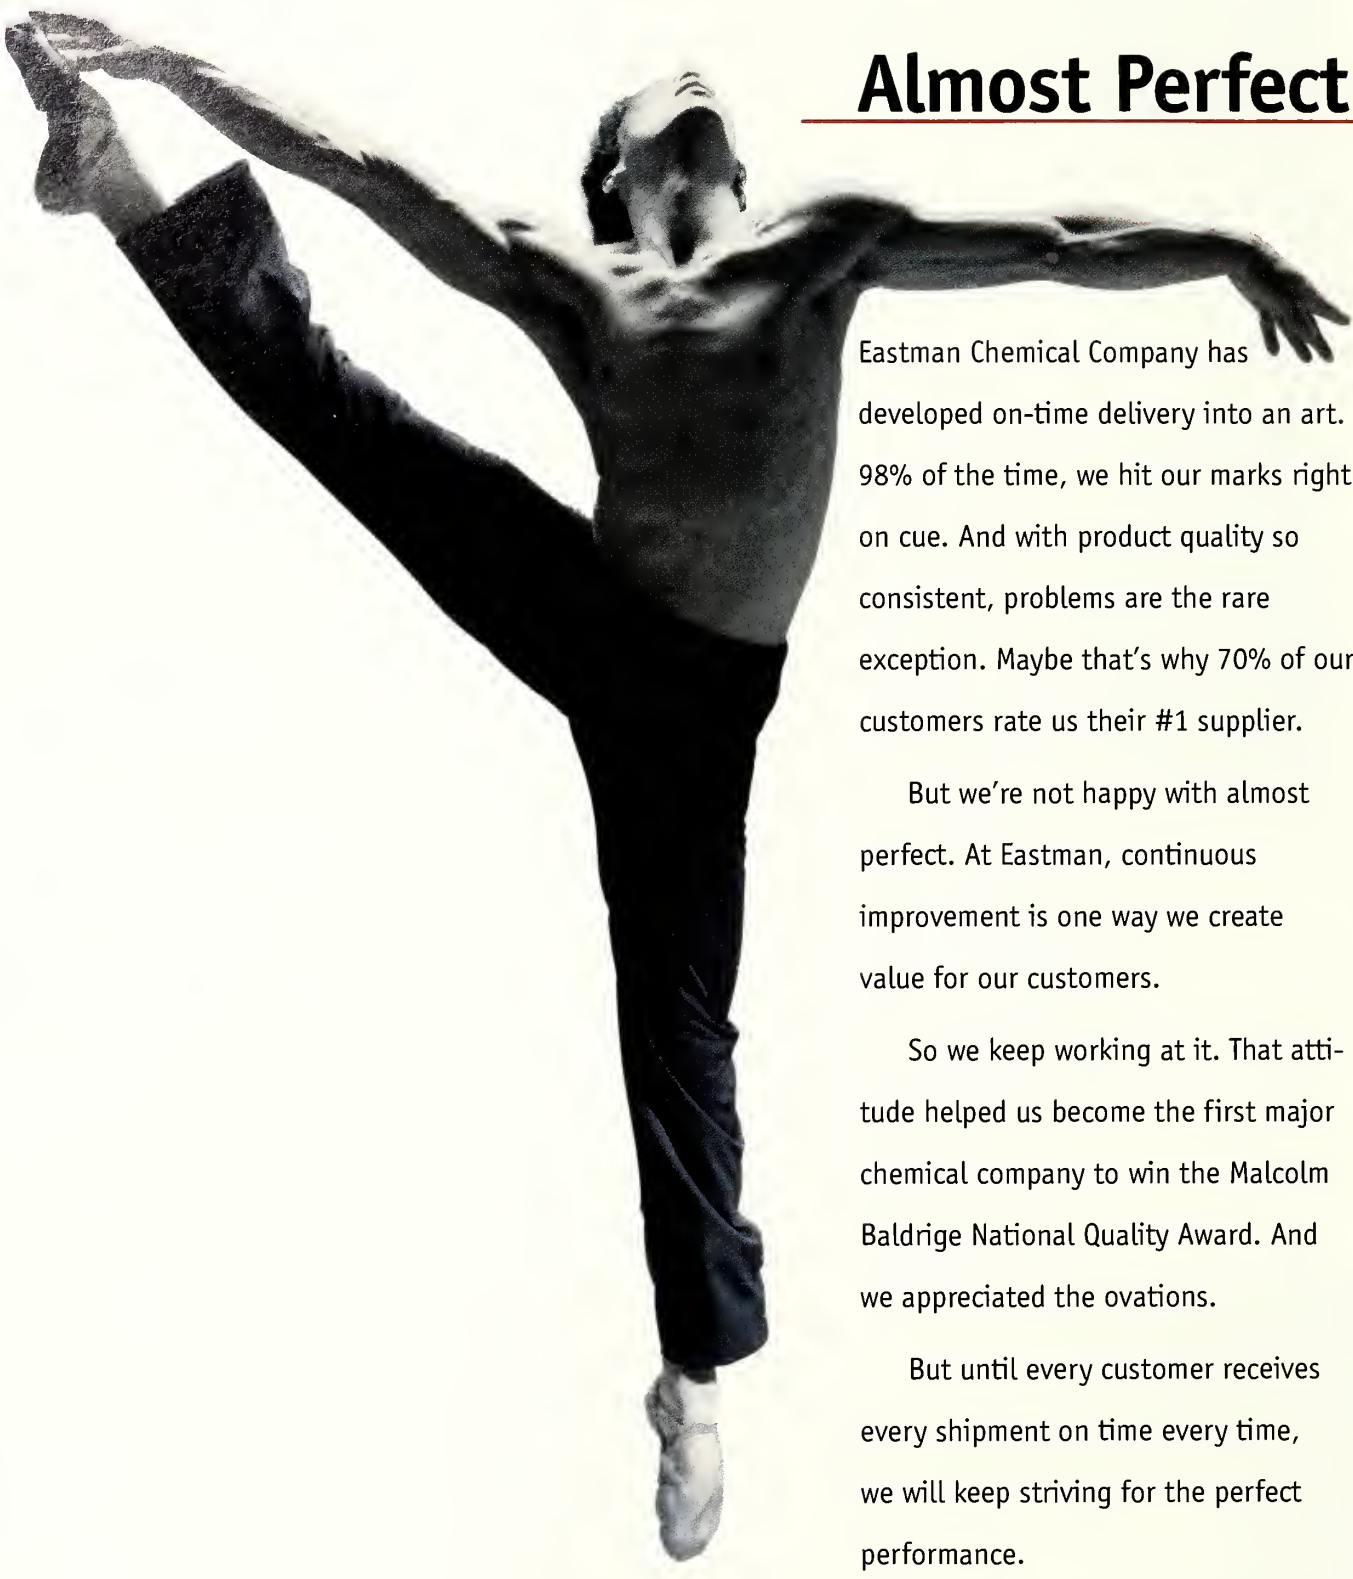

One of the most exciting 25 seconds (about 35 seconds when Clemson dresses 120 players for homecoming) in college football from a color and pageantry standpoint. After Clemson's last warmup the team retreats to the home dressing room located under the West Stands. At about 12:50 (for normal 1:00 P.M. game), the team boards two buses and drives around the periphery of the stadium to the east side of the field. After everyone is properly collected, the cannon sounds, Tiger Rag is played and Clemson charges down the hill (exactly 100 feet top to bottom) and onto the field. It is one of the most celebrated entrances in sport. The Tigers have done it for every game since 1942, except for 1970, 1971 and four games of the 1972 season. In all, the Tigers have run down the hill 249 times heading into 1996.

How in the world did the tradition of running down the hill start? There is no long involved explanation, it used to be the quickest way to get to the field. When the stadium was built in 1942 the football locker-rooms were up the street in Fike Fieldhouse.

When the players were finished getting dressed they used to walk out the front door and walk down the street to "The Hill". Coach Howard continued the tradition when locker-rooms were finally built inside the stadium because Clemson fans used to get so fired up when they gathered at the top of the hill. That's when the buses came into use to spend the trip from the lockerroom to the other side of the stadium.

Running down the Hill is one of the greatest stadium entrances in all of sports

CLEMSON HALL OF FAMERS

By Sam Blackman

The rich history of Clemson athletics will come to the forefront today as the university pays tribute to five of its finest athletes by inducting them into the Clemson University Athletic Hall-of-Fame.

This year's class includes three former Clemson football players, who all served Clemson with remarkable distinction, and two former Clemson basketball players, who served as the cornerstone of many landmark accomplishments in this school's hoops history.

Joe Bostic played football for the Tigers between 1975-78. Bostic was part of the era that put Clemson back on the college football map. When he started at Clemson, the Tigers were 2-9. But, Clemson made steady progress over the length of his career, and Bostic was a prime reason. He was the ringleader of the offensive line that made Clemson a dominant running team in 1977 and 1978.

In 1977 and 1978, the Tigers played in the Gator Bowl, the first appearances in post season play since the 1959 season. Bostic was the cornerstone of the offensive line that allowed Clemson running backs to rush for an average of 289 yards per game in 1978, still the all-time Clemson single season record. Many of those yards were gained right over Bostic. Lester Brown rushed for a record 17 touchdowns that year and he has Mr. Bostic to thank for many of those holes.

The native of Greensboro was a two-time All-American in 1977 (Football Writers Association first team) and 1978 (Football News first-team) and started 37 consecutive games at offensive guard over a period of four years. He was also named first-team All-ACC in 1977 and 1978. He won the coveted Jacobs Blocking Trophy for the state of South Carolina in 1977 and 1978, and for the ACC in 1977.

Bostic was a main reason Clemson had an 11-1 record in 1978, Clemson's greatest season in 30 years. The Tigers finished tied for sixth in the nation in the final AP poll that year, the highest finish in Clemson history at the time.

After his Clemson career, he was drafted by St. Louis in 1979 and played for the Cardinals for 10 seasons. He was named to the NFL All-Rookie team that season.

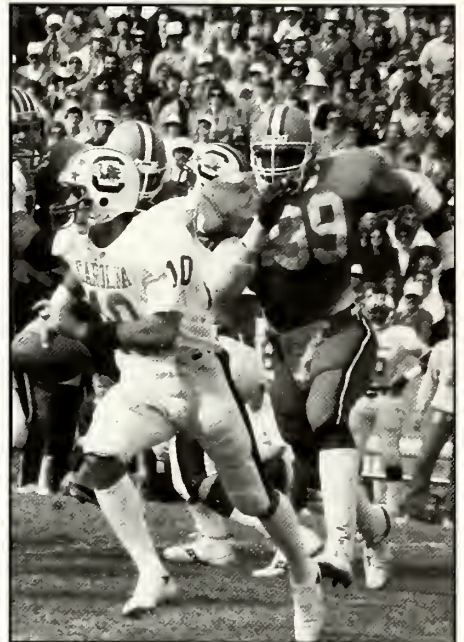

Another football standout being honored today is Jeff Bryant. Bryant, who came to Clemson from Atlanta, was a defensive tackle in 1978-81 and was a second-team All-American on Clemson's National Championship team of 1981.

He also led the National Championship team in sacks (8.5) and tackles for loss (19), and was named first-team All-ACC in 1981. He will always be remembered for his game-saving fumble recovery in a 10-8 win over North Carolina in 1981, a key win for the Tigers in the first ever game involving two top 10 teams in ACC football history. His hustle on that play typified his perseverance as a player throughout his entire career. Bryant was a major reason Clemson ranked in the top 10 in the nation in many defensive categories in 1981.

Bryant was a first-round draft pick of the Seattle Seahawks in 1982, the number-six pick of the entire draft, the third highest pick in the draft in Clemson history. He is second in Seattle Seahawks history in quarterback sacks, and played 13 years in the NFL.

Like Bostic, Bryant was named to Clemson's Centennial Team this year so this is really a special season for both. Bryant and Bostic were two of six Centennial Team members on the 1978 Clemson team.

One of the best basketball players ever

Bryant led Clemson's national championship team in sacks and was named to the Clemson Centennial Team this year.

to play the game at Clemson is Dale Davis. In 1989-90 he was an honorable mention All-American. Davis was the first player in ACC history to lead the conference in both rebounding and field goal percentage in consecutive years (1988-89 and 1989-90). He is one of just three players in ACC history to accumulate 1500 points, 1200 rebounds, and 200 blocked shots in a career.

He ranked in the top 10 in ACC history in three categories when he graduated and is one of four players in ACC history to lead the conference in rebounding three straight seasons.

Davis finished his Clemson career second in rebounds per game at 10.0, second in rebounding (1216) and fourth in scoring (1650). He also finished his career fifth in double-figure scoring games (83), second in field goal percentage (59.0), third in blocked shots (210) and sixth in field goals (633).

Chosen second-team All-ACC by the ACC Sportswriter's Association as a senior, he was a first-team choice in 1989-90 and a third-team choice in 1988-89. He was just the fourth Clemson player to make first, second or third-team All-ACC three times. Davis was drafted by the Indianapolis Pacers in the first round in 1991.

Davis is remembered as much for his

Bostic was a two-time All-America lineman in the 1970s.

Davis is still the only player in ACC history to lead the league in field goal percentage and rebounding for two straight years.

leadership qualities as his statistics. Time and again it was Davis who led Clemson comebacks during the Tigers drive to the 1990 ACC Championship, the first ACC title of any kind in Clemson men's basketball history. He had 26 points to lead the Tigers to victory over LaSalle in the 1990 NCAA Tournament. Clemson trailed by 19 points in the second half of that game until Davis carried the Tigers on his back to the victory.

Davis has continued his outstanding level of play in the NBA. He is in his sixth year as a starter for the Pacers and has led the team in rebounding and field goal percentage each of the last four years. He is the Pacers all-time leader in field goal percentage and has ranked in the top 10 in the league in field goal percentage three straight seasons. Two years ago he was an important reason Indiana reached the Eastern Conference finals.

Donna Forester played basketball from 1976-78 and is regarded as one of the players who established the Clemson program's firm foundation. During her career she set the Clemson all-time scoring record with 1,270 points, even though she played just two seasons. She also set the school's career record for most rebounds (766), most field goals made (535), best free throw percentage (.769), and best scoring average (20.2 ppg.)

She is currently first on the ACC career list for best rebounding average with a 12.2 mark.

During her career, she was named first-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference in 1978, and was named to the ACC All-Tournament team in 1978. She was the first Lady Tiger to earn All-ACC honors.

During the 1977-78 season, she set the Clemson record for best field goal percentage in a game (1.000) as she hit 12-12 against Claflin on December 7, 1977. Forester also set the Lady Tiger record for the most rebounds in a game with 25 on February 12, 1977.

The Lady Tigers had a 22-9 record in 1976-77 and a 21-11 slate in 1977-78, the two seasons Forester played for Annie Tribble's Tigers. Those were the first 20-win seasons in Clemson history and she was a 20-point scorer on both teams. She remains one of just four players in Clemson history to accumulate 1200 points and at least 700 rebounds and she is the only player on the list who played just two seasons.

Fred (Knobby) Knoebel was a football and baseball standout in the early 1950s. As a freshman, he stole 26 bases in 27 attempts in 31 games in 1950. He also set the Clemson record for most triples per game during his career. In 1952, he had a .366 batting average, 29 RBI's, 59 total bases, seven home runs and a triple.

Knoebel played football in 1950, 1951,

Knoebel still holds the Clemson career record for baseball triples/game and football interceptions/game.

Donna Forester was Clemson's first All-ACC player and still holds the career rebounds/game record.

and 1952. He also participated in every game during his three-year career. From his defensive back position, he intercepted a record 15 passes in 29 games, setting the school record for most interceptions per game. He is second in Clemson history in career takeaways with 15, and he would probably hold the record outright if fumble recoveries were documented in 1950 stats.

Knoebel had six interceptions to lead the team in 1950 and seven in 1951. The seven interceptions remained the Clemson single season record until 1989 when Robert O'Neal had eight. However, Knoebel still holds the per game mark at 0.7. O'Neal took 12 games to reach his eight interceptions.

The 1951 team is the only Clemson team in post World War II History not to be scored upon through the air. That 1951 team still holds the interceptions per game record of 2.27 (24 in 11 games). Knoebel was also a mainstay on the 1950 defense that forced 3.5 turnovers per contest, still the third best single season team figure in Clemson history.

TODAY'S BAND PROGRAM

by Meredith Merritt

Big Band. If someone was to describe the Clemson Tiger Band in two words, those would be the words that one would choose.

Anyone who is a Tiger fan can always count on the band to show its loyalty and support at all athletic functions. Whether it is football, basketball or any other Clemson sport the band is there to display its color and pageantry. But the Tiger band is more than just a body of students willing to give up their afternoons to practice and games. It is made up of dedicated hardworking students that fulfill more than just the normal duties of being in the band.

The Tiger Band Student Staff is comprised of some of the most talented and dedicated young men and women on the Clemson campus. The student leadership structure is unique among major college marching bands. Since Clemson does not have a large enough band staff to cover the normal day to day operations that need to be tended the students are given more responsibilities than students in most other bands.

The members of the student staff are led by Chris Sloan who is in his first year as commander of the band. Claire Compton is the Vice Commander of the band, Danny Goldrick is in his first year as Sargeant Major, and Kirsten Avolio is in her second year as Uniform Officer.

Stephen Crowell is in his second year as Equipment Officer, Jessica Moore is in her first year as Librarian, Lawanda Curry is in her fourth year as Drum Major, and Tracy Dean is in her third year as Drum Major. Landon Hammett is in his first year as drum major, Susan Lark is in her second year as Drum Major, and Karen Karr is in her second year as Flag Captain.

Stephanie Moore is in her first year as Flag

Captain, Linda Siebert is in her second year as Flag Captain, Kim Penninger is in her first year as Twirler Captain, and Scott Miller is in his first year as Head Manager. But what is really amazing about this group of students is the fact that they make it all seem so easy.

Today we honor these students who put so much time and effort into each game and give more than just 100 percent. From the moment that these students take to the field all eyes will be watching them and listening to their - Big Band sound. This group provides the leadership and dedication that is needed year round to make the Band's season a successful one.

Just 30 minutes before kickoff the "Band That Shakes The Southland" takes to the field and begins its pregame festivities by performing one of John Sousa's most renowned marches, the "Washington Post." The Clemson University Pershing Rifles Company C4 presents the colors on the field. Everyone stands to honor America in the singing of the "God Bless America".

After the invocation, the crowd is asked to remain standing for the Pledge of Allegiance and the National Anthem conducted by Clemson University Director of Bands Dr. Richard Goodstein. Tiger Band then invites everyone to sing the Clemson University Alma Mater.

Tiger band then marches across the field to form the script "Tigers", which is brilliantly displayed over the entire field. Dotting the "I" at today's game will be the Hall of Fame recipients- Joe Bostic, Jeff Bryant, Dale Davis, Donna Forester and Frederick Knoebel. Bostic, Bryant and Knoebel all made significant contributions to Clemson football, while Davis and Donna Forester were mainstays of their respective record setting Clemson basketball teams.

After the dotting of the "I" the Tiger band will begin playing the "Song That Shakes The Southland" while marching to the east end of the end zone to form the traditional tunnel. This tunnel serves as the entrance to the field that the team takes. At this point, Clemson fans are just seconds away from the "most exciting 25 seconds in college football from a color and pageantry standpoint."

At the designated moment, the cannon fires and the frenzy of excitement begins. The players "Rub Howard's Rock" hoping to gain some of its magical powers. No player will ever forget the excitement that this generates. The band then makes it way off the field.

The band makes its second appearance of the game during halftime. Today's halftime program is entitled "Big Band". Featured songs will be, "It Don't mean A Thing If It Don't Got That Swing" by Duke Ellington, "Sing, Sing, Sing" by Benny Goodman, and a medley of "Opus One" by Tommy Dorsey and "In The Mood" by Glenn Miller. Also during halftime the Hall of Fame Inductions will take place.

Tiger Band wishes to thank all those students who give so much time and effort into the band program. Without their outstanding leadership skills, performances and practices would be much more difficult.

And, before we close the book on today's Hall of Fame, we would like to remind you that Tiger Band's annual "Pass-In-Review" Concert will be held Thursday, November 21, at 8:00 pm in the Brooks Center. Everyone is invited to attend.

Tiger Band is directed by Dr. Mark Hosler. Dr. Richard Goodstein serves as Director of Bands, while Cheryl Hosler is the flag line and twirler instructor. Sonja Massey is the band secretary and your public address announcer at the stadium is Tim Willis.

THE LAST WORD

by Bob Bradley

How many times have you heard people say: "I can remember something that happened 25 years ago better than I can 25 days ago?"

I can relate to that. In fact, I believe that this crowd who remembers things a quarter century ago is in the majority.

There are many great plays and games in Clemson football history that stick in my mind, so we thought today might be a good day to share some of them.

Although I saw the first game in Memorial Stadium in 1942 while a sophomore, and was back in school in 1947, my first real recollection of Clemson football was the undefeated team a year later when I was sports editor of the Tiger. I saw all 11 games that year and flunked out of school — what memories of that football year.

Outstanding plays of that season were a dime a dozen . . . Bobby Gage's 90-yard punt return against N.C. State and then the Clemson defense holding the 'Pack three times inside the one-yard line to preserve a 6-0 victory . . . defeating an outstanding Mississippi State team led by Shorty McWilliams in Starkville . . . Phil Prince's blocked punt and Rabbit Thompson running the ball in for the winning touchdown against South Carolina.

In Braves Field in Boston the BC Eagles had Butch Songin who threw 42 passes on the Tigers that night, but Clemson prevailed, 26-19 . . . following wins over Wake Forest and Duquesne, the Tigers had their closest call of the year, beating Auburn in a quagmire in Ladd Memorial Stadium, 7-6 . . . then closed out the regular season with a 20-0 victory over The Citadel in Charleston as the Tigers helped dedicate Johnson Hagood Stadium . . . Ray Matthews needed 18 points to win the Southern Conference scoring title and he scored all three Clemson touchdowns in that game.

The nerve-racking Gator Bowl game against Missouri brought all kinds of superlatives, but former Clemson coach Frank Howard says this game produced, 'the play I remember most' after watching his Tigers for 30 years.

Clemson had the ball just across mid-field, facing fourth-down with a couple of yards to go, leading 24-23, with around two minutes remaining in the game. Giving the ball back to the potent Mizzou offense would be disaster, Howard thought, so he gambled and called on Fred Cone for a crash over left tackle. Cone hit a stone wall, but made a 360 degree roll and gained six yards, and a first down, and Howard's first bowl victory.

The season of 1978 was another banner year for the Tigers. Clemson started out with a 58-3 win over The Citadel, which was the 100th Tiger victory in Death Valley.

Maybe the most memorable game of that season was the 28-24 win over Maryland at College Park that clinched the Atlantic Coast Conference championship for the Tigers. The Terp game produced an estimated crowd of 7,000 fans at the Greenville-Spartanburg Airport to greet the team on its return.

Clemson had to catch up three times in this game and didn't take the lead for good until Lester Brown scored on a sweep right on a five-yard run exactly halfway through the fourth quarter for a 28-21 Tiger advantage.

But smoke over these three consecutive scores!

Steve Fuller passes to Jerry Butler, who split three Terp defensive backs on a play covering 87 yards for a 14-all-tie . . . 56 seconds later Steve Atkins breaks two tackles behind the line of scrimmage and scores on a 98-yard run, which is still the longest rushing play in ACC history . . . and then Fuller finds his roommate Dwight Clark open over the middle and the completion is good for a 62-yard scoring play.

Folks, that's three consecutive scoring plays totaling 247 yards in four minutes and eight seconds. If anyone had a call from nature about then, they missed some exciting football.

Maybe the most memorable play of that '78 season, because it brought more national attention than any other, came in the Gator Bowl where Ohio State's legendary coach Woody Hayes slugged Clemson linebacker Charlie Bauman after Bauman's interception. The action by the Ohio State coach brought about Hayes' firing the next morning. The Tigers' 17-15 win over the Buckeyes became secondary after that incident.

Memorable plays do not have to be for 75 yards and a score. Many still remember the stop linebacker Larry Hefner put on a Wake Forest runner inside the 10-yard line in 1971 to preserve a 10-9 Clemson win. Or, how about the safety pulled on Georgia in 1987 that became the difference in a 21-20 Tiger victory. Or, many people remember the fumble recovery of a North Carolina lateral by Jeff Bryant at Chapel Hill in 1981 while 21 others stood around thinking the play was a forward pass. This quick thinking by Bryant preserved a 10-8 Clemson win in the only battle of top 10 teams in ACC history.

Bob Patton blocked an extra point attempt at Wake Forest in 1950 with 0:00 showing on the clock, which meant a 13-12 triumph. Two other safeties come to mind. One in 1966 when Wilson Childers and James Tomkins tackled Wake Forest's Ken Erickson in the end zone for a 23-21 win with 30 seconds left. And who could forget Sterling Smith tackling Frank Smith for a safety in the 1951 Orange Bowl which meant that Clemson would come out on top, 15-14, over Miami.

When it comes to field goals, Jack Miller booted one in the 1949 Gator Bowl, giving Clemson a 24-16 lead over Missouri and an eventual 24-23 win. That was the only field goal the Tigers kicked that season. David Treadwell was successful on a 46-yarder in Athens in 1986 and a 31-28 victory over the 14th-ranked Dawgs. And no Clemson person will forget the 32-yard three-pointer that Nelson Welch kicked with 55 seconds left against Virginia in 1992 for a 29-28 super success. At one time in the first half, Clemson had trailed the 10th-ranked Cavaliers, 28-0. This was the greatest comeback in Tiger history.

Obed Ariri booted a 52-yarder in 1980 with six seconds left for a 27-24 win after the Tigers entered the last quarter trailing Virginia by 14. Clemson trailed by 18 with 17 minutes remaining in 1966 when Jimmy Addison connected with Jacky Jackson on a 75-yard pass play which gave Clemson its 10th straight win over the Cavaliers.

It seems that I've just got started and there are so many more plays to recall . . . like 'The Catch' on the Steve Fuller to Jerry Butler pass against South Carolina in 1977 . . . Dexter Davis knocking down an Oklahoma pass in the end zone on the last play of the 1989 Citrus Bowl which meant a 13-6 Tiger win. . . Wayne Simmons dashing 73 yards on the reservation after an interception as Clemson downed Florida State 34-23 in 1989. Simmons now linebacks for the Green Bay Packers . . . Patrick Sapp hitting Terry Smith with a 21-yard completion and a 14-13 win over Kentucky in the 1993 Peach Bowl, and the run Emory Smith made on a 57-yard screen pass just prior to the winning toss . . . and Nealon Greene scoring the game winner two weeks ago on a fourth-down play to beat a ranked Georgia Tech team.

It would be impossible in this small space to list even a 10th of the great plays Clemson athletes have turned in on the gridiron. Possibly another chapter can be written in another football program down the road.

Sterling Smith's tackle of a Miami running back in the 1951 Orange Bowl proved to be the game winning play in a 15-14 Clemson victory.
